NCAA TOURNAMENT INFO

TICKET INFORMATION

Tickets for this weekend's matches go on sale online at Georgia Bulldogs | Online Ticket Office | Event Groups (evenue.net) beginning Tuesday at 9 a.m. and running through Thursday at 5 p.m. Fans can also purchase tickets at the Dan Magill Tennis Complex beginning one hour prior to the start of the first match each day. Will call opens at 10 a.m. Friday, 9 a.m. Saturday and noon on Sunday. Tickets are $5 for adults and $3 for youth and seniors. The ticket is good for the entire day.

HOST VENUE

The newly rennovated Dan Magill Tennis Complex was unveiled in February 2020. The $8.5 million renovation project marked the largest makeover for the complex since 2002. It features a new grandstand to Henry Feild Stadium with chair-back seating in the lower levels, permanent concession stands, restrooms and a new 1,750-square foot handicapaccessible press box. New umpire headquarters, as well as additional seating along the grass, can also be seen at the complex.

The Dan Magill Tennis Complex has long stood as a beacon of excellence in collegiate tennis. With a total of 16 courts (12 outdoor and four indoor) and a total seating capacity of more than 5,000 fans, it is one of the largest on-campus tennis facilities in the country.

In 2006, the NCAA opted to have one combined site for the men's and women's tennis championships. Georgia has served as a host for the combined NCAA Tennis Championships in 2007, 2010, 2012, 2014, and 2015, and 2017.

Regarded as one of the best collegiate tennis facilites in America, the complex hosted the men's NCAA Championships a total of 24 times, the women's Championships three times and both genders five times, most recently in 2017. It played host to 13 NCAA Championship in a row from 1977-89. The complex underwent a $7.5 million development and renovation project in 2002 that included the construction of brand-new clubhouses for the men's and women's programs. In 1991, the complex received lights thanks to the generous support of Oscar-winning actress and Athens native, Kim Basinger.

Five of Georgia's six National Championships in men's tennis and one of the two women's NCAA titles were won on their home courts at the Dan Magill Tennis Complex. Aside from Georgia's best players, the Magill Tennis Complex has hosted classic matchups featuring such stars as John McEnroe and the Bryan brothers. Former Bulldog All-American John Isner is having a successful professional career ranked in the top 20 in the world. Former Bulldog Chelsey Gullickson captured the 2010 NCAA singles title at the Magill Tennis Complex and went on to play in the US Open in singles and doubles. Recent Bulldog Ellen Perez has competed at the 2016 US Open as well as the last three Australian Opens (2017-19).

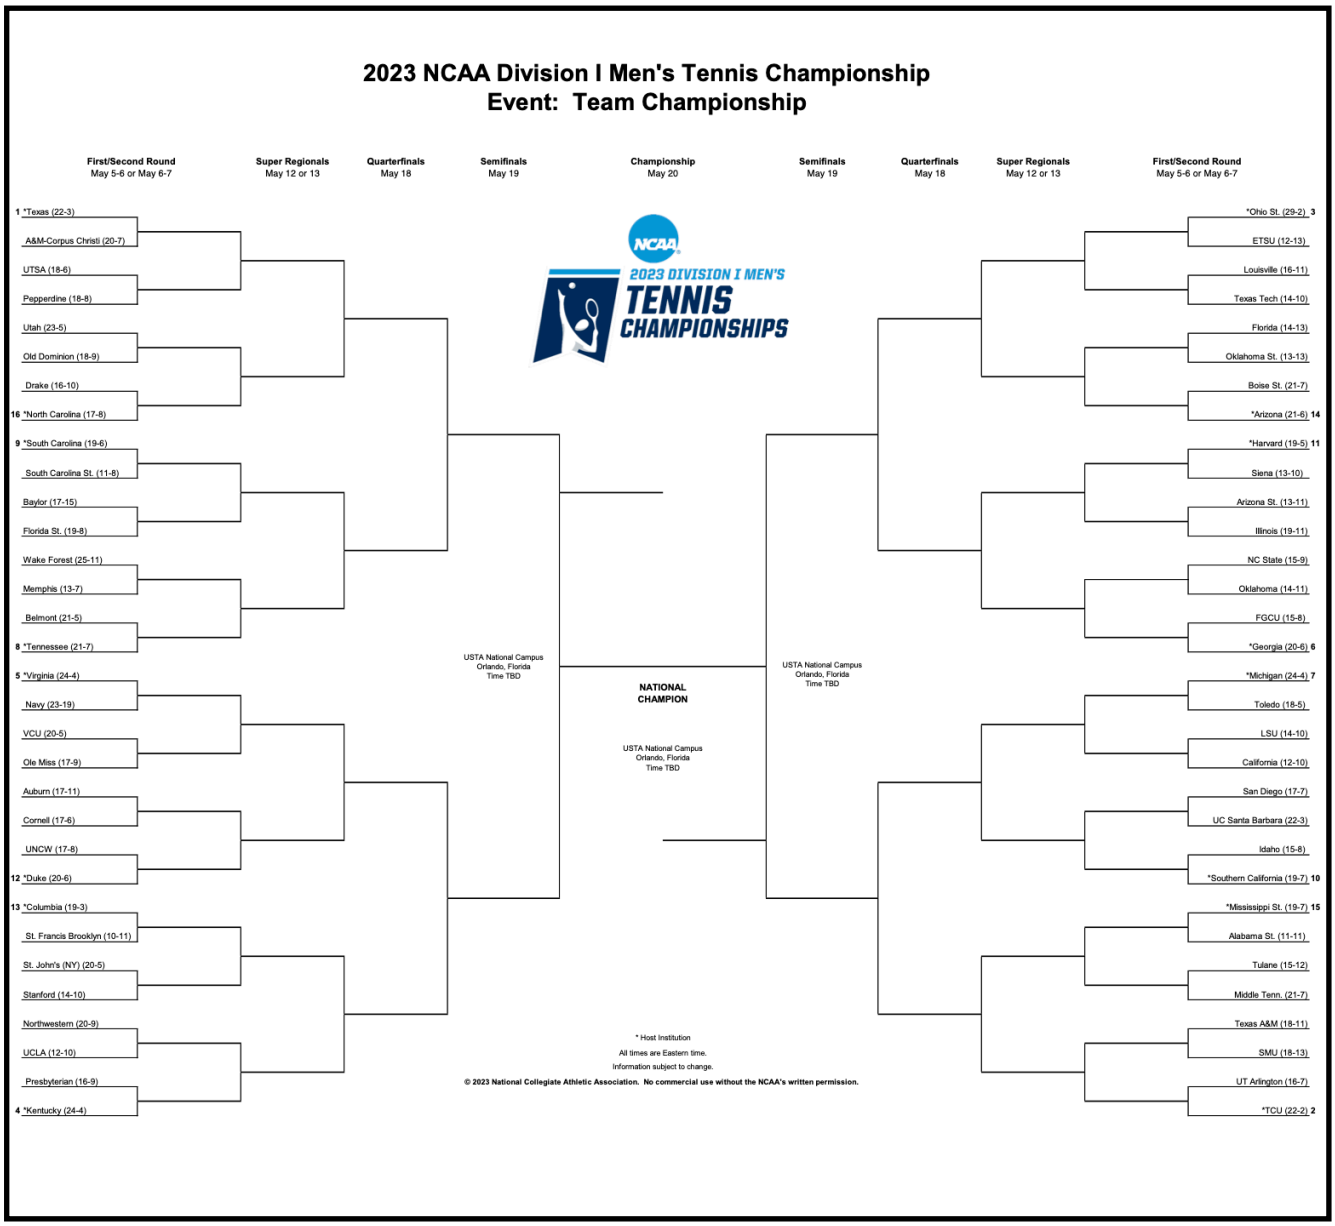
NCAA TOURNAMENT BRACKET



GEORGIA'S MATCHES

The University of Georiga men's tennis team won its first and second round matches of the NCAA Tournament with a 4-0 win over FGCU and a 4-1 defeat of Oklahoma in Athens. By earning the No. 6-seed, the Bulldogs will stay at home and play No. 11 Harvard in the Super Regional at the Dan Magill Tennis Complex on Saturday, May 13 at 2 p.m. ET.

Should Georgia win the match, it will travel to the USTA National Campus in Lake Nona, Fla. to play their remaining matches at the national site. The NCAA Tournament will resume play on Thursday, May 18 for the quarterfinals, which will be streamed on the CrackedRacquets YouTube channel. The semifinal on May 19 and championship on May 20 will be televised on the Tennis Channel.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

For the 32nd time in program history, the Georgia Bulldogs are the Southeastern Conference regular season champions. The team won the outright title by going a perfect 12-0 in SEC play.

Redshirt senior Blake Croyder earned the match-clinching win for the Bulldogs at No. 20 Florida on Sunday, April 9. Georgia has now won 11 consecutive matches and earned their first regular season conference title since 2017.

"For these guys, winning the conference championship means a heck of a lot and I am so proud of them," said Coach Diaz. "This past fall, when we had former players back at the alumni event, I introduced our team to the lettermen there. I asked everyone to raise their hand if they had won a championship ring during their time as a Bulldog, and every single player that was there raised their hand. Since 1971 and onward, everyone who played here for four years can say they won this conference. So, for our fifth-year seniors, it's been a huge goal for them, and this means a ton."

POSTSEASON PLAY CONTINUES

The Bulldogs continue their postseason after finishing as the runner up during the Southeastern Conference Championship in Auburn, Ala. Georgia is seeking its seventh NCAA national championship (1985, 1987, 1999, 2001, 2007, 2008) and ninth team title in history (ITA Indoor National Champions in 2006, 2007).

Joining the Bulldogs in the Athens Super Regional is No. 11-seed Harvard. The Crimson advanced after a pair of 4-0 sweeps against Siena and Arizona State in Cambridge, Mass. The winner of the match will advance to the national site at the USTA National Campus in Lake Nona, Fla. for the quarterfinal round and onward, which will be played on May 18-20.

32-TIME SEC CHAMPIONS

With the Bulldogs' win against No. 12 Mississippi State at home on April 13, Georgia clinched the outright regular season SEC Championship for the 32nd time in program history, which leads the SEC. Georgia earned a perfect 12-0 record in conference play for the 16th time and sixth in the Manny Diaz era. With an 18-5 record, the team finished the regular season with a .783 win percentage, the best since the 2015-16 squad entered the postseason at 18-3, good for a .857 percentage.

CLUTCH CLINCHING

In Georgia's 12 regular season conference matches, six different players have earned the match-clinching win in singles: Bryde against Alabama and LSU, Quinn against Auburn, Kentucky and Mississippi State, Thomas Paulsell did so against Vanderbilt in his first dual match result of the season, Henning capped off the team's wins over Tennessee and Ole Miss Perez Peña confirmed the team's sweeps of Arkansas and South Carolina, and most Croyder earned his second clinch against Florida in a three-set battle to propel the team to its 32nd Southeastern Conference Championship.

DAWGS IN THE RANKINGS

In the latest team rankings from the Intercollegiate Tennis Association, Georgia held the No. 6 spot – the same as its NCAA Tournament seed – in the team rankings for the second straight week.

Redshirt freshman Quinn moved up to No. 2 in the singles ranking and is 14-1 in his last 15 match results, dating back to Feb. 19. The SEC Freshman of the year reached his highest singles ranking since Nov. 16, 2022, where he was the top-ranked player in the country heading into the spring season.

Blake Croyder, tied for the most dual match singles wins on the team with 17, moved to No. 106. The Marietta native reached his 100th career win after defeating Mississippi State's No. 95 Ewen Lumsden by a 6-2, 6-1 score on April 13. Trent Bryde makes his third straight appearance in the singles poll, now being ranked No. 116. The Sewanee native is 10-6 on court three this season and 7-2 in his last nine match results.

Bryde and Quinn make up the top spot for Georgia in doubles and rose to the No. 6 pair in the country in the latest doubles poll. The tandem has won 15 matches this season on court one, including five point-clinching victories. Quinn is the only freshman in the nation to be ranked in the top 10 of both the singles and doubles poll.

STRAIGHT-SET WINS

Georgia has straight-set victories in 75 of the team's 98 dual-match singles wins, good for a clip of 76.53 percent of the team's singles wins. Croyder leads the team, with 16 of his 19 wins coming in straight-set decisions. Of those 98 straight-set wins, 46 of them came in matches that were 6-4, 6-4 or better. Perez Peña leads the team in this statistic with with 13, Croyder has 10, Quinn has eight, Henning has eight, Giusca has six, Bryde has three and Paulsell has one.

LOVE, THE DAWGS

The Bulldogs have been winning at a high rate in singles competition since Valentine's Day. In the team's last 16 matches, each player has a winning percentage above .500 in singles. Quinn is currently riding a staggering nine-match win streak, all of which have come against conference opponents. Five Georgia athletes finished with at least eight singles wins in conference action: Henning (10), Quinn (10), Perez Peña (10), Croyder (9) and Bryde (8).

Since the start of conference play, Georgia has impressed on the top three courts. Since the team's 5-2 win at No. 58 Alabama, No. 4 Quinn, No. 19 Henning and Bryde are a combined 35-5 on courts one, two and three respectively.

SOPHOMORE SURGE

With a singles record of 97-11, sophomore Miguel Perez Peña has increased his win total by 17 from last season, the highest on the team of any returning player. The Castellon de la Plana, Spain native currently leads the team in wins, going 10-5 in the fall and now 19-5 in the dual match season. Perez Peña has won 16 of his last 18 matches dating back to the team's win against Georgia Tech on Feb. 12 and holds six wins on court five.

Perez Peña has five match-clinching wins during his career, two last season and three during his sophomore campaign. He clinched the sweep against No. 5 South Carolina on April 7 with a straight set win against No. 88 Casey Hoole, 6-3, 6-2, against Arkansas on April 2 and in the Bulldogs' win against Oklahoma in the round of 32, allowing the team to advance to the Super Regional round.

ALL AMERICAN DAWGS

By being named a top-16 seed in the NCAA Singles and Doubles Championship, Ethan Quinn has earned Intercollegiate Tennis Association All-American Honors for both competitions and is joined by redshirt senior Trent Bryde for honors in doubles.

The Fresno, Calif. native claimed the No. 2 seed in the 64-person field after he played the top spot for Georgia in singles. Quinn finished with a 16-8 record, including winning his previous nine matches and is 14-1 since Feb. 19. After winning the Intercollegiate Tennis Association All-American singles title in October, he entered the spring as the top-ranked singles player in the country and did not leave the top five all season.

Quinn paired with Bryde in doubles, where they were named the No. 4 seed in the 32-team event. Together, they have gone 16-9 in the spring, earning 11 wins against ranked opponents and are 8-2 in their last 10 matches. The No. 5 doubles team in the country, Bryde and Quinn clinched the point six times for the Bulldogs and have nine wins by 6-3 or better.
