POSTSEASON PLAY CONTINUES

The Bulldogs continue their postseason after winning their Super Regional match against No. Harvard, 4-2, on May 13. By being named the No. 6 seed, Georgia was able to play its first three matches at home before advancing to the final site at the USTA National Complex.

Georgia will face No. 3 Ohio State in the Elite Eight. The Buckeyes advanced to Lake Nona, Fla. after beating ETSU and Louisville, both by a 4-0 score, and No. 15 Arizona in the Super Regional in a 4-2 result.

The team finished as the runner up during the Southeastern Conference Championship in Auburn, Ala. Georgia is seeking its seventh NCAA national championship (1985, 1987, 1999, 2001, 2007, 2008) and ninth team title in history (ITA Indoor National Champions in 2006, 2007).

32-TIME SEC CHAMPIONS

With the Bulldogs' win against No. 12 Mississippi State at home on April 13, Georgia clinched the outright regular season SEC Championship for the 32nd time in program history, which leads the SEC. Georgia earned a perfect 12-0 record in conference play for the 16th time and sixth in the Manny Diaz era. With an 18-5 record, the team finished the regular season with a .783 win percentage, the best since the 2015-16 squad entered the postseason at 18-3, good for a .857 percentage.

CLUTCH CLINCHING

In Georgia's 12 regular season conference matches, six different players have earned the match-clinching win in singles: Bryde against Alabama and LSU, Quinn against Auburn, Kentucky and Mississippi State, Thomas Paulsell did so against Vanderbilt in his first dual match result of the season, Henning capped off the team's wins over Tennessee and Ole Miss Perez Peña confirmed the team's sweeps of Arkansas and South Carolina, and most Croyder earned his second clinch against Florida in a three-set battle to propel the team to its 32nd Southeastern Conference Championship.

DAWGS IN THE RANKINGS

In the latest team rankings from the Intercollegiate Tennis Association, Georgia held the No. 6 spot – the same as its NCAA Tournament seed – in the team rankings for the second straight week.

Redshirt freshman Quinn moved up to No. 2 in the singles ranking and is 14-1 in his last 15 match results, dating back to Feb. 19. The SEC Freshman of the year reached his highest singles ranking since Nov. 16, 2022, where he was the top-ranked player in the country heading into the spring season.

Blake Croyder, tied for the most dual match singles wins on the team with 17, moved to No. 106. The Marietta native reached his 100th career win after defeating Mississippi State's No. 95 Ewen Lumsden by a 6-2, 6-1 score on April 13. Trent Bryde makes his third straight appearance in the singles poll, now being ranked No. 116. The Sewanee native is 10-6 on court three this season and 7-2 in his last nine match results.

Bryde and Quinn make up the top spot for Georgia in doubles and rose to the No. 6 pair in the country in the latest doubles poll. The tandem has won 15 matches this season on court one, including five point-clinching victories. Quinn is the only freshman in the nation to be ranked in the top 10 of both the singles and doubles poll.

STRAIGHT-SET WINS

Georgia has straight-set victories in 77 of the team's 101 dual-match singles wins, good for a clip of 76.23 percent of the team's singles wins. Croyder leads the team, with 16 of his 19 wins coming in straight-set decisions. Of those 101 straight-set wins, 47 of them came in matches that were 6-4, 6-4 or better. Perez Peña leads the team in this statistic with with 13, Croyder has 10, Quinn has eight, Henning has eight, Giusca has seven, Bryde has three and Paulsell has one.

LOVE, THE DAWGS

The Bulldogs have been winning at a high rate in singles competition since Valentine's Day. In the team's last 16 matches, each player has a winning percentage above .500 in singles. Quinn is currently riding a staggering 10-match win streak, with nine coming against conference opponents. Five Georgia athletes finished with at least eight singles wins in conference action: Henning (10), Quinn (10), Perez Peña (10), Croyder (9) and Bryde (8).

Since the start of conference play, Georgia has impressed on the top three courts. Since the team's 5-2 win at No. 58 Alabama, No. 4 Quinn, No. 19 Henning and Bryde are a combined 36-7 on courts one, two and three respectively.

SOPHOMORE SURGE

With a singles record of 30-11, sophomore Miguel Perez Peña has increased his win total by 18 from last season, the highest on the team of any returning player. The Castellon de la Plana, Spain native currently leads the team in wins, going 10-5 in the fall and now 20-6 in the dual match season. Perez Peña has won 17 of his last 19 matches dating back to the team's win against Georgia Tech on Feb. 12 and holds nine wins on court five.

Perez Peña has six match-clinching wins during his career, two last season and four during his sophomore campaign. He clinched the sweep against No. 5 South Carolina on April 7 with a straight set win against No. 88 Casey Hoole, 6-3, 6-2, against Arkansas on April 2, in the Bulldogs' win against Oklahoma in the round of 32 and in the team's 4-2 victory against No. 11 Harvard to advance to the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals.

ALL AMERICAN DAWGS

By being named a top-16 seed in the NCAA Singles and Doubles Championship, Ethan Quinn has earned Intercollegiate Tennis Association All-American Honors for both competitions and is joined by redshirt senior Trent Bryde for honors in doubles.

The Fresno, Calif. native claimed the No. 2 seed in the 64-person field after he played the top spot for Georgia in singles. Quinn finished with a 16-8 record, including winning his previous 10 matches and is 15-1 since Feb. 19. After winning the Intercollegiate Tennis Association All-American singles title in October, he entered the spring as the top-ranked singles player in the country and did not leave the top five all season.

Quinn paired with Bryde in doubles, where they were named the No. 4 seed in the 32-team event. Together, they have gone 17-9 in the spring, earning 12 wins against ranked opponents and are 8-2 in their last 10 matches. The No. 6 doubles team in the country, Bryde and Quinn clinched the point seven times for the Bulldogs and have nine wins by 6-3 or better.

COACH MANUEL DIAZ

Head Coach 35th Season

Manuel Diaz's numbers speak for themselves -- He has won 28 Southeastern Conference Championships in 35 seasons at the helm of the Georgia men's tennis program.

The Hall of Fame coach, who followed the 'greatest Bulldog of them all' and one of the founding fathers of modern collegiate tennis, Dan Magill, has become a name synonymous with the sport. Diaz won his 709th all-time match during the shortened 2019-20 season, passing his mentor Magill for the most wins in SEC history (now at 744 career wins).

Diaz, just the second coach in the program's storied history, is also the recipient of the 2020 Coach Dan Magill Impact Award — an honor given annually by the State of Georgia Tennis Hall of Fame.

The 2021-22 campaign marks the 34th season as head coach for Diaz, who has led Georgia to six national championships - four NCAA titles (1999, 2001, 2007 and 2008) and two ITA National Indoor titles (2006 and 2007). He is one of only three active coaches with multiple NCAA titles and, since becoming head coach in 1988, Diaz has guided the Bulldogs to 28 SEC titles (18 regular season crowns and 10 tournament championships).

The 2018-19 season brought his 700th win, putting him just six victories away from matching the SEC-record of legendary head coach Dan Magill's 706 career wins. Diaz owns a 744-185 record — an 80-percent win percentage and average of 21 wins per year.

The Bulldogs have ended the season ranked in the top-five nationally 19 times under Diaz, also finishing in the top-10 27 times and the top-25 in 33 of his years as head coach.

The 2016-17 SEC regular season title gave the program its fifth-straight SEC championship for the first time since 1971-75. Diaz, the 2017 SEC Coach of the Year, guided the Bulldogs to their second consecutive NCAA semifinals and 24th overall. The top-ranked duo of Jan Zielinski and Robert Loeb earned All-America status after advancing all the way to the 2017 NCAA Doubles Championship match.

Under his leadership, the Bulldogs finished with a perfect SEC record in 2015-16, becoming the first Georgia team to achieve an unblemished SEC record since the 2007 NCAA Championship squad went 32-0.

In 2013, his 25th season at the helm, Diaz led UGA into the semifinals of the NCAA Tournament for the sixth time in eight years. He coached his 700th Georgia match Diaz's Bulldogs swept both the SEC regular season and tournament crowns for the seventh time in school history. On March 10, 2013, Diaz moved into second place on the all-time SEC wins list behind only his mentor Dan Magill.

Diaz led the Bulldogs to their second consecutive NCAA Championship in 2008. The sixth NCAA team championship title in school history, Diaz has accounted for four of them as the head coach (1999, 2001, 2007, 2008), and he was also an assistant coach under Magill on both of the other winning squads (1985, '87).

In addition to his four NCAA Championships, Diaz's teams have reached the NCAA finals seven other times: 1989, 1991, 1993, 1997, 1998, 2002, and 2006. Georgia was also undefeated (32-0) in 2007 and 30-1 in 2006, with its lone loss coming in the NCAA final.

From April 23, 2005, to March 19, 2010, Diaz coached the Bulldogs to 71 straight wins at the Dan Magill Tennis Complex, the second-longest home winning streak in program history. Diaz led Georgia to 11 consecutive national top-five finishes from 1989 to '99, a feat no other school in the country can match.

Diaz's Bulldogs won the program's first-ever triple crown of tennis in 2001, as the team won its second national title in three years, while Matias Boeker won the NCAA singles crown and teamed with Travis Parrot for the doubles championship. It was only the third time since 1977 that such a feat had been accomplished.

A six-time SEC Coach of the Year (1989, 1995, 2001, 2006, 2007 and 2017), Diaz has seen seen 37 players earn a combined 73 All-America honors. With Diaz at the helm, five Bulldogs have been four-year All-Americans: Al Parker (1988-91), Mike Sell (1992-95), Jamie Laschinger (1993-96), Steven Baldas (1995-98), Bo Hodge (2001-04) and most recently John Isner (2004-07).

Diaz was selected as the Wilson/ITA National Coach-of-the Year in 1995, 2001 and 2007. For his outstanding contribution to tennis in his home country of Puerto Rico, Diaz was inducted into the Puerto Rican Tennis Hall of Fame in 1998. In 2000, he was inducted into the Georgia Tennis Hall of Fame of Georgia Hall of Fame. Most recently in 2017, Diaz was among four athletes and coaches conducted into the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame.

A native of San Juan, Puerto Rico, Diaz is married to the former Suzanne Rondeau of Toronto, Canada. They have three sons: Manuel III, Eric and Alex. Alex and Eric both played on Georgia's men's tennis team. Eric earned his degree in the spring of 2015 and is now the assistant coach of the Boise State men's tennis program, while Alex graudated from UGA in the spring of 2021.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH JAMIE HUNT

Assoc. Head Coach
Sixth Season

JAMIE HUNT

Jamie Hunt, who was part of Georgia's 2007 and 2008 NCAA National Championship teams and most recently served as the associate head coach at Vanderbilt University, is in his fifth season back at his alma mater. Hunt was named the Intercollegiate Tennis Association Southeast Region Assistant Coach of the Year for the 2018-19 campaign.

Since returning to the program in the 2017-18 season, Georgia has signed six blue-chip prospects and earned the No. 2 recruiting class in 2018, No. 3 in 2019, No. 10 in 2021, No. 12 in 2022 and No. 1 in 2023 according to TennisRecruiting.net.

The 2022-23 season marks the 13th year of coaching for the San Antonio, Texas native, who spent seven of those at Vanderbilt where he was an assistant coach for four years and an associate head coach for three. The Commodores made their 15th NCAA tournament appearance in 2017 after Hunt helped the squad ink a top-5 class in 2015 as the team's recruiting coordinator.

"We could not be more fortunate to have Jamie as our associate head coach," said head coach Manny Diaz. "His level of enthusiasm and high character is at the very top of our profession. Jamie continues to become a better coach with every year. He bleeds red and black and will do anything under the sun for our kids and our program. He is a terrific mentor to them and will be an incredible head coach one day soon. We are fortunate to have him at the University of Georgia."

Following his playing career, Hunt made his way to Nashville to become an assistant coach at Vanderbilt. The Commodores had an impressive year in 2013, finishing with a No. 15 ITA national ranking following an appearance in the NCAA Round of 16, marking Vanderbilt's highest ranking in over a decade.

Following the previous year's success, Hunt then helped Vandy to a No. 20 national ranking in 2014 as the team hosted NCAA regionals for the second year in a row. In 2015, Hunt helped develop Gonzales Austin into Vanderbilt's second ever SEC Player of the Year, helping the program earn its best SEC record in nearly a decade with an 8-4 mark against league opponents.

Under his seven years of leadership in Nashville, four Vanderbilt players were named ITA All-Americans, while two doubles teams reached No. 1 rankings in ITA Doubles.

A U.S. Open Junior Doubles Champion, an All-SEC and All-America performer and winner of the prestigious Southeast Region ITA/Arthur Ashe Award for Leadership and Sportsmanship, Hunt was a star tennis player and leader for the Bulldogs' tennis program from 2007 through 2010. His 116 singles wins ranks 12th all-time in school history for the four-time All-SEC selection, while his combined singles and doubles record of 238-80 ranks third in the Georgia record book.

In 2008, Hunt compiled a 39-8 singles record, which included a perfect 10-0 mark against conference opponents. The next season, he teamed with Nate Schnugg to reach the quarterfinals of the NCAA doubles championship and earned All-America status.

Hunt was he only junior player in history to win the Easter Bowl Doubles in the boys 14's, 16's and 18's. He also earned ITF World Junior rankings as high as No. 2 in doubles and No. 26 in singles.

Hunt and his wife Kyndal Edwards Hunt met as seniors at the University of Georgia. The couple has five children: Daughter Blakely (7), son Hayes (5), two-year-old twins -- daughter Macy and son Hudson -- and Ford, who was born in September of 2022.

VOLUNTEER COACH WILL REYNOLDS

WILL REYNOLDS

Volunteer Coach
Second Season

Will Reynolds is entering his second season on the Georgia Bulldogs' tennis staff. An alum of the program, he played tennis for Georgia in the early 2010s. Reynolds previously served on the women's tennis staff as the Program Specialist from 2018-21. Before being hired as the Program Specialist, he was a graduate manager for the women's team from 2012-14 after his time as a player for the men's team.

In his first season as Program Specialist in 2019, Georgia put together one of its most successful seasons, winning the ITA National Team Indoor Championships, going undefeated in league play to win the Southeastern Conference and reached the finals of the NCAA Championships. In 2021, the Bulldogs posted a 23-2 record and final national ranking of No. 4 after reaching the quarterfinals of the NCAA Championship. Georgia claimed the Southeastern Conference regular season and SEC Tournament titles that year, going undefeated in league play.

Reynolds grew up in Chattanooga, TN., and was coached by Bulldog legends Philip Johnson (a member of the 1985 National Championship team) and the late Wesley Cash (played in the 1970s). He graduated from Georgia with a B.S. in Communications in May of 2012 and received a M.S. in Sport Management in May 2014. Upon graduation, Reynolds moved to Huntsville, Alabama to become the Director of Junior Tennis at Athletic Club Alabama under the direction of Eddie Jacques, a former Georgia men's tennis player (1994-97), whose son will join the team in the fall of 2023. Additionally, he worked for a biotech company prior to returning to Athens in February of 2017.

Back in the Classic City, Reynolds taught tennis at Beck Tennis Academy at Jennings Mill until being named Women's Program Specialist in September of 2018.

He and his wife, the former Ashley Hines (UGA '11), have four children - Piper (7), Jacob (5), Turner (2) and they welcomed their second son, Benjamin, in December of 2022.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

For the 32nd time in program history, the Georgia Bulldogs are the Southeastern Conference regular season champions. The team won the outright title by going a perfect 12-0 in SEC play.

Redshirt senior Blake Croyder earned the match-clinching win for the Bulldogs at No. 20 Florida on Sunday, April 9. Georgia has now won 11 consecutive matches and earned their first regular season conference title since 2017.

"For these guys, winning the conference championship means a heck of a lot and I am so proud of them," said Coach Diaz. "This past fall, when we had former players back at the alumni event, I introduced our team to the lettermen there. I asked everyone to raise their hand if they had won a championship ring during their time as a Bulldog, and every single player that was there raised their hand. Since 1971 and onward, everyone who played here for four years can say they won this conference. So, for our fifth-year seniors, it's been a huge goal for them, and this means a ton."

1985

The 1985 Georgia squad, led by seniors in the top four positions, was perhaps the best team in school history. The Bulldogs were led by Mikael Pernfors, a native Swede who won a second-straight NCAA singles championship with a victory over teammate and roommate George Bezecny. Bezecny played No. 2 for the Bulldogs while Allen Miller, a four-time All-American, was No. 3. The rest of the lineup consisted of Deane Frey at No. 4 singles, Philip Johnson at No. 5 and freshman Trey Carter at No. 6. Georgia finished the spring dual match schedule with a perfect 26-0 record.
Final: Georgia def. UCLA 5-1

No. 1 - Pernfors (UGA) d. Kures (UCLA) 6-2, 6-3
No. 2 - Bezecny (UGA) d. Klaparda (UCLA) 2-6, 6-4, 6-3
No. 3 - Miller (UGA) d. Pearce (UCLA) 6-4, 6-4
No. 4 - Basham (UCLA) d. Frey (UGA) 6-1, 7-5
No. 5 - Johnson (UGA) d. Greenwood (UCLA) 7-6, 3-6, 7-5
No. 6 - Carter (UGA) d. Diller (UCLA) 7-6, 3-6, 6-3

Doubles not played, match clinched.

1987

The 1987 Georgia tennis team completed the SEC hat trick by winning the indoor tournament, the conference round robin with a 9-0 record and the league outdoor championship. The lineup for the 1987 national champions consisted of the following players: Philip Johnson at No. 1 singles, Stephen Enochs at No. 2, John Boytim at No. 3 and Trey Carter at No. 4. Rounding out the Bulldogs' lineup was Mike Morrison at No. 5 singles with T.J. Middleton at No. 6. Freshman Jim Childs saw significant action at No. 6 singles and was a regular at No. 3 doubles.
Final: Georgia def. UCLA 5-1

No. 1 - Johnson (UGA) d. Nahirney (UCLA) 4-6, 1-2, ret.
No. 2 - Enochs (UGA) d. Farrow (UCLA) 7-6, 6-7, 6-2

No. 5 - Galbraith (UCLA) d. Morrison (UGA) 6-2, 1-6, 6-1
No. 6 - Middleton (UGA) d. Garrow (UCLA) 4-6, 6-4, 6-3

Doubles not played, match clinched.

1999

The 1999 Bulldogs entered the newly formatted 64-team tournament as the No. 10 seed. Through the course of the regional and championship tournaments, the Bulldogs overcame seemingly insurmountable odds, fighting off three team match points to rise to the top. In the team final against top-ranked UCLA, Georgia opened with wins at Nos. 1 and 2 to claim the doubles point, but the Bruins retaliated. Falling into a tie in singles play, junior Joey Pitts swung the balance for the Bulldogs in a three-setter at the No. 4 position.
Final: Georgia def. UCLA 4-3

No. 1 - Grinda (UCLA) d. Hemeda (UGA) 6-4,6-7(4),6-4

No. 3 - Carlson/Corrales (UGA) vs. Rozpedski/Sands (UCLA), DNF

2001

The 2001 Bulldogs etched their name in the annals of Georgia tennis history and also the NCAA record books as just the second program to win the title, fail to reach the Round of 16 the following year and then claim another NCAA crown in a span of three years. Georgia rode a 25-match winning streak through the tournament to capture the program's fourth national title. In the team final, Georgia clinched the doubles point, but lost the first set in three singles matches. However, with Georgia leading 3-1, Chad Carlson topped Adam Carey 6-1, 5-7, 6-2 to clinch the match for the Bulldogs.
Final: Georgia def. Tennessee, 4-1

No. 1 - M. Boeker (UGA) vs. Parsons (UT), 1-6, 6-4, 5-5, DNF

No. 2 - Hodge/Wagner (UGA) d. Handoyo/Podbury (UT), 8-6
No. 3 N. Boeker/Carlson (UGA) d. Rea/Toledo (UT), 8-3

2007

The 2007 Bulldogs completed their dream season by winning the program's fifth NCAA title on their home court. The crown was the final piece to a perfect puzzle as the squad captured every possible team title during its undefeated run, which also included the ITA Team Indoor National Championship and the SEC Tournament. Georgia was so dominant that for the first time in team history, the Bulldogs never allowed an opponent more than two points in a match. Even then, the opposition gained two points only twice, and Georgia registered a total of 22 shutouts.
Final: Georgia def. Illinois, 4-0

No. 1 - Isner (UGA) d. Anderson (ILL) 6-1, 7-6 (7-1)

2008

The 2008 Bulldogs became the first squad to win back-to-back NCAA Championship titles since Stanford in 1997-98. Georgia officially captured the title by defeating Texas in the finals, 4-2. However, arguably the victory most indicative of the Bulldogs' talent came in the semifinal round as Georgia topped undefeated, No. 1-ranked and heavily-favored Virginia, 4-3. On the run to the national championship, the Bulldogs also captured their third consecutive regular-season Southeastern Conference championship with a 10-1 record.
Final: Georgia def. Texas, 4-2

No. 1 - Helgeson (UGA) d. Kurtovsky (UT) 4-6, 6-2, 6-3

From 1953-1989 the SEC Champion was determined by the accumulation of points in an individual flighted tournament (there was not a separate team tournament champion). In 1990, a team dual match format was instituted for the conference tournament which provided a SEC Tournament Champion. From 1990-98, the SEC Champion was determined by a total aggregate points accumulated at the conclusion of the conference tournament: one full point is awarded for each regular-season conference win, one-half point for wins in the first two rounds of the conference tournament, one-half point for receiving a first-round bye in the conference tournament and one full point for a win in the conference tournament semifinals and finals. For the 1999 season, the same points system was in place with a couple of changes: one full point for first-round bye in the conference tournament and one full point for a win in any round of the conference tournament. In 2000, the SEC changed the determination of its tennis regular season champion to the team with the best winning percentage in conference regular-season dual matches (11 matches).
