THE MATCHUP

- No. 9 University of Missouri gymnastics begins its 2025 season with the Beauty and the Beast meet, the simultaneous gymnastics and wrestling competition, with the gymnastics team taking on Ball State, Illinois State and Southeast Missouri State.
- This is the 10th time Mizzou has hosted the event and first as a quad.
- SEMO has been the Tigers' most common opponent in Beauty and the Beast history, now competing for the fourth time.

BEAUTY AND THE BEAST HISTORY

- Mizzou gymnastics has won seven of the nine Beauty and the Beast events while wrestling is 6-3 with all three losses coming against top-10 teams.
- The highest team score Mizzou ever posted was a 196.625 in the program's win over Illinois in the previous Beauty and the Beast on Jan. 19, 2019.
- Adrianne Perry and Sarah Shire each hold two Beauty and the Beast scoring records - Perry on vault (9.950) and bars (9.925) in 2007 and 2008, respectively. Shire holds the best scores from her 2009 balance beam routine and floor in 2008 and 2009, earning a 9.925 in both events.

BLACK & GOLD SHOW STOPPERS

- During Missouri's annual Black & Gold Intrasquad meet, Team Black took the win, scoring higher in three rotations and tying on bars to defeat Team Gold 196.150-194.700.
- The Tigers combined for 27 of 50 scores over 9.8 or better and eight scores of 9.900 or greater, four of which came on balance beam. The Black squad chipped in with a combined score of 49.200 on vault, the highest score by either team in any event.
- Graduate newcomer Lauren Macpherson brought home the all-around title. The 2023 Mountain Pacific Sports Federation Gymnast of the Year earned a 9.900 on the balance beam and scores of 9.850 on vault, bars and floor for a 39.450 total.
- Senior Amari Celestine capped off her preseason prep by scoring the highest of any gymnast during the bars and floor routines. The three-time All-Southeastern Conference honoree turned in the highest score of the meet - a 9.950 from her floor performance.

SIGNED, SEALED, DELIVERED

- Director of Athletics Laird Veatch announced on Thursday, Jan. 2 that gymnastics head coach Shannon Welker has signed a contract extension to remain at the helm of the program through 2029.
- Since taking over Mizzou's program in May of 2013, Welker has transformed the Tigers into a consistent contender on the national stage.
- He has led the program to historic milestones, including multiple NCAA Championship appearances, record-breaking team scores, home attendance records along and the development of numerous All-Americans and conference honorees.

GUESS HU'S BACK?

- Helen Hu, a two-time NCAA All-American and three-time All-Southeastern Conference gymnast, has returned to the University of Missouri gymnastic program and will use her final year of eligibility to compete in the forthcoming 2025 campaign. Hu spent the past year backpacking in European, South American and Asian countries.
- The redshirt senior holds career highs of 9.975 three times on the balance beam and 9.950 twice on bars, placing her tied for third and second in the program's record books for the respective competitions.
- Between beam and bars, Hu has earned a 9.900 or better 36 times between the two events.
- In her most recent season of competition, the 2023 campaign, Hu competed in all 13 meets and posted a 9.900 or better on beam in 10 of them.
- She earned her second team All-America status in the event and was on the end-of-season All-SEC team.
- Notably, Hu reached a 9.975 on beam for the third time in her collegiate career during the team's quad meet on March 10.

IT JUST MEANS MORE

- Missouri gymnastics was selected as the ninth-ranked team in the nation by the members of the Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association heading into the 2025 season.
- The Southeastern Conference combined for seven of the top 10 in the poll. Ninth-ranked Mizzou is joined at the top by No. 1 Oklahoma, No. 2 LSU, No. 3 Florida, No. 6 Alabama, No. 7 Kentucky and No. 8 Arkansas. All nine programs in the SEC were featured in the top 17 in the country.
- This preseason ranking ties the Mizzou's highest in the last 10 years and is the second time in the last three years the Tigers have cracked the top 10. They also slotted at No. 9 ahead of the 2023 season.
- All but two of the Tigers' 15 opponents for the upcoming season were featured in the ranking in either the selected 1-36 or receiving votes.

2024 WRAPPED – A RECORD BREAKING YEAR

- The Mizzou gymnastics program broke more than 25 records last year in the 2024 season, most notebly setting the team-high score on all four events.
- Seven Tigers earned All-SEC selections, the most of any team in the conference, and three were named WCGA All-Americans.
- Missouri set a new dual meet attendance record during its Jan. 26, 2024 win over No. 3 LSU with 7,336 spectators as the program earned its highest-ranked win in history.
- The Tigers had their best season ever on vault, earning a score of at least 49.000 in every meet for the first time ever.
- Mara Titarsolej, Sienne Schreiber and Jocelyn Moore all earned perfect 10s during the year - Titarsolej on bars, Schreiber on beam and Moore on floor.
- The team also set its highest-ever NQS score of 197.420. In addition, Missouri also broke its best NQS score on floor (49.575), bars (49.420) and vault (49.340). Its ranking of eighth on floor and 11th on bars is the highest end of year ranking.

STAR-STUDDED TIGERS JOIN THE AMBUSH

- After a historic 2024 season, Welker signed the sixth-ranked freshman class and top-ranked transfer class, according to CollegeGymNews.com.
- Welker has announced the program's 2025 recruiting class of four signees on Nov. 11, 2024, consisting of CollegeGymNews.com five-star Kimarra Echols, Bryce Kupbens, three-star Maiya Terry and four-star Hayli Westerlind.
- The Tigers' class ranks 11th nationally and fifth in the SEC, according to CollegeGymNews.com. This marks the third time since 2021 that MU has welcomed a top-11 class nationally.

UP NEXT

- The Tigers travel to take on the Denver Pioneers in Magness Arena for their first road meet of the year at the Denver Quad on Jan. 12 at 3 p.m. Georgia and LIU join Mizzou and Denver for contest.
- This marks the first time Missouri visits the Pioneers since March 3, 2012, which was also in a quad format.
- Mizzou is 9-11 against Denver all-time, 11-24 versus Georgia and meets LIU for the first time.

LAST TIME OUT

- Mizzou's 2024 season came to an end in the NCAA Gainesville Regional Final, finishing in third with a 197.325 final score.
- MU became part of a select group to advance to four-consecutive regional finals, as only six other programs in the country — Alabama, California, Denver, Florida, Oklahoma and Utah — have sustained a streak as long as the Tigers.
- The Tigers put together their most complete meet of the season at the NCAA Gainesville Regional Second Round, scoring a 197.525 to place second and claim a spot in the regional final.

In his 12th season at the helm of the Mizzou gymnastics program, head coach Shannon Welker continues to make the Tigers a rising power nationally.

In Welker's 11th season, Missouri reached new heights, finishing with a 13-6 record and a program-record 197.420 NQS that ranked No. 13 in the country. The Tigers posted a score of 197 or higher in 12 of their 14 meets, the most in team history.

In postseason competition, the Tigers finished fifth at the SEC Championship meet, posting a school-record 197.275 to win the afternoon session. Missouri reached the NCAA Regional Final for a fourth consecutive season and finished the country ranked 11th in the nation, the team's second-best year-end ranking in program history.

Welker's squad started off its season with a bang, peaking at No. 3 in the first rankings of the year for the team's highest ranking ever. Three weeks later, the Tigers earned their biggest upset in program history, knocking off the eventual NCAA champion No. 3 LSU on Jan. 26 inside Hearnes Center.
As a team, Missouri set program records on three different events. The Tigers posted a 49.600 on bars at the Mizzou Quad on March 10, then scored a 49.500 on vault and a 49.700 on floor at the Illinois Quad on March 17 to end the regular season strong.

The Tigers racked up several accolades over the course of the season. Three Missouri gymnasts — Jocelyn Moore, Sienna Schreiber and Mara Titarsolej — each earned WCGA Regular Season All-America honors, marking the most gymnasts to earn the honor in a single season for the Tigers.

At the conference level, Missouri's awards were headlined by Jocelyn Moore winning 2024 SEC Event Specialist of the Year and Mara Titarsolej claiming a share of the SEC bars title to become Missouri's first bars conference champion. Additionally, Missouri earned a conference-best and program-record seven All-SEC selections at the SEC Championship.

Another record-breaking season for the Tigers led by Welker, ending with the highest regional score in program history with 197.600 and a 3rd place finish at the NCAA Regional Final. Mizzou's score of 49.450 also earned them the highest vault score in regional competition. The Tigers set a new program-high championships score, beating both Arkansas and Georgia at the SEC Championships, along with a 2nd place finish at the NCAA Regional Second Round. Under Welker's coaching, the Tigers secured the 14th rank nationally and a 10-3 record, including wins over five nationally-ranked opponents.

Five gymnasts earned All-SEC Honors for the second year in a row: Amari Celestine, Helen Hu, Jocelyn Moore, Alisa Sheremeta and Sienna Schreiber. Moore and Hu were also named Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association (WCGA) Regular Season All-Americans for the season. Claiming first-team honors on vault, Moore posted this accolade for the second consecutive time and Hu claimed second-team honors on beam.

In a remarkable 2022 season, Welker led the Tigers to a 5th place finish in NCAA National Championships in April — the best finish in program history. The Tigers ranked 11th nationally, defeating LSU and Iowa in the NCAA Regional Second Round. Missouri grabbed hold of a top-two finish, topping UCLA and Iowa State, at the Raleigh Regional to secure a spot at the NCAA Championships for only the second time ever. Under Welker's leadership, the Tigers also won on the road against Georgia for the first time.

Two gymnasts received Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association (WGCA) Regular Season All-America honors — Jocelyn Moore and Sienna Schreiber. Moore claimed first team honors on vault, while Schreiber took second team honors on the beam and all-around. Welker received SEC Coach of the Year for his performance.

Mizzou concluded the 2021 campaign ranked 14th nationally for the second year in a row, the first time since the 2009 and 2010 seasons the Tigers posted back-to-back top 14 finishes. Competing in a Southeastern Conference-only regular season, Welker led Missouri to wins over No. 15 Georgia and No. 19 Auburn, while also finishing ahead of No. 9 Arkansas at the 2021 SEC Championship.

In the NCAA Tuscaloosa second round, the Tigers erupted with a 197.325, the third-highest score in program history, to advance to the NCAA Regional Final. It marked the first time Mizzou competed in a regional final in the revamped postseason format.

Individually, the Tigers had a WCGA Regular Season All-American for the second year in a row, as sophomore Sienna Schreiber nabbed second team accolades on beam. Schreiber and freshman Amaya Marshall also claimed All-SEC honors, with Schreiber earning a spot on the All-SEC Team and Marshall on the SEC All-Freshman Team.

In 2020, Welker's Tigers vaulted up the rankings as the season progressed, reaching 14th in late March when the season was abruptly cut short prior to the regular season finale. Over the course of the season, Mizzou defeated No. 11 Minnesota and No. 19 Nebraska and twice posted team scores among the top 10 in program history. Additionally, Welker's vault squad notched two scores that ranked in the program's top 10 on the event.

The Tigers' National Qualifying Score (NQS) of 196.635 at the time the season ended was the third-best such score in program history and the team's highest since 2004. Freshman Helen Hu emerged as one of the nation's top gymnasts, claiming NACGC/W All-America first team (beam) and second team (bars) honors, as well as SEC Event Specialist of the Year accolades.

The 2019 Tigers finished 17th in the national rankings, which tied the team's best finish since 2010. At the 2019 NCAA Athens Regional, Missouri tallied both the highest regional score (196.625) and the top regional beam total (49.200) in program history. Senior Brooke Kelly Senior Brooke Kelly became the 10th Tiger to earn an individual berth to the NCAA Championships after she qualified on beam.

Mizzou knocked off four top 25 teams during the 2019 season, including a win over No. 10 Kentucky and a tie with No. 7 Michigan.

The Tigers also recorded the second-highest beam score in program history (49.425), the sixth (49.425) and seventh (49.400) best floor scores and the ninth-best vault total (49.275) over the course of the campaign.

2018
Welker's fifth season at Mizzou saw the Tigers knock off three top 10 teams during the regular season. On March 2, Missouri defeated No. 5 Florida, 196-925-196.925, for the first victory over the Gators in program history. Mizzou also defeated Arkansas twice this year while the Razorbacks were ranked in the top 10.

Overall, the Tigers went 9-7 in the regular season, including conference wins over No. 5 Florida and No. 10 Arkansas. The squad also concluded the year ranked 20th in the nation, the third-straight season Mizzou ended the year in the top 20.

In his fourth year with Missouri, Welker's Tigers finished 17th in the national rankings and a third-place finish at the NCAA Gainesville Regional, only one spot shy of qualifying for the NCAA Championships. The 2017 season also saw Mizzou go 3-4 in Southeastern Conference dual meet action, with wins over No. 12 Arkansas, No. 12 Kentucky and No. 18 Auburn.

The Tigers entered the season with just one SEC dual win in program history. Additionally, Missouri recorded the third and fourth-highest scores in program history in 2017, with a 197.200 against Auburn and a 197.150 one week later against Kentucky.

During the 2016 season, Welker led Mizzou to its highest NCAA Regional (third) finish since 2010. Overall, the Tigers finished the year ranked 19th in the national rankings, the team's highest since 2010, and ahead of Southeastern Conference foes Arkansas and Kentucky. Missouri recorded three scores of at least 196.625 or higher during the year in 2016, only the second time Mizzou accomplished that in the 37 year history of the program.

Additionally, the Tigers defeated No. 9 Georgia 195.800-195.350 for the team's first top-10 win since 2012. Under Welker's tutelage, freshman Morgan Porter earned SEC Freshman of the Year honors and was the first Tiger gymnast to qualify for the NCAA Championships since 2012.

Under Welker's direction, the Tigers were the nation's most improved program in 2015. Mizzou finished the season ranked 21st, a full 20-spot increase from the previous year and the biggest jump in the country.

The 2015 Tigers also qualified for their first NCAA Regional since 2012, where they scored a 196.100, the second-best Regional score in program history. Additionally, Mizzou entered the top-25 for the first time since 2012 and scored at least 195 10 times in 13 meets. The Tigers also topped 196 twice during the season for the first time since 2012 as well.

2014
In his first year in Columbia in 2014, Welker quickly installed his Championship Culture to the squad. Over the season, the Tigers went 6-7 in the regular season and scored the sixth-best bars score (49.300) in program history against George Washington.

Welker brought a wealth of experience to Columbia after five years as an assistant coach at the University of Michigan and nine years as the head coach and program director at the St. Louis Gymnastic Center.

PRIOR TO MIZZOU
During his time at Michigan, Welker was primarily responsible for coaching the vault and floor squads in addition to serving as the recruiting coordinator. Welker guided his vault squads to three top ten finishes during his time at Michigan, and his 2012 vault team finished at No. 11 in the nation. Under his direction, the Michigan floor squads also finished among the nation's top-10 four times, while the team earned top-15 finishes in each of his seasons in Ann Arbor.

Welker coached five gymnasts to 12 All-American honors while at Michigan including the 2013 NCAA National Floor Champion, Joanna Sampson. He also produced three NCAA Regional Championship floor title winners and back-to-back NCAA Regional Champions on vault. Four of his gymnasts won event titles at the Big Ten Championships, and Welker assisted the Wolverines to three NCAA National Championships as well.

Before coaching at Michigan, Welker spent one year as an assistant coach at Bowling Green, where he coached two gymnasts to the NCAA Regional Championships for the first time in program history. Before working with the Falcons, Welker served as the head women's gymnastics coach and program director at the St. Louis Gymnastic Center for nine years.
