CONFERENCE PLAY CONCLUDES

The Bulldogs conclude Southeastern Conference action this week at home, beginning with No. 12 Mississippi State on Thursday at 9 a.m. ET and then hosting No. 25 Ole Miss for Senior Day on Saturday at 1 p.m. ET. The program holds a 62-15 record against the Mississippi State Bulldogs and a 44-12 mark versus the Rebels all time.

In its two road matches last weekend, Georgia defeated No. 5 South Carolina by a 4-0 result in Columbia, S.C. and then travelled to Gainesville, Fla. to beat No. 20 Florida, 4-3. The team will travel to Auburn, Ala. next week to compete in the SEC Tournament quarterfinals on Friday, April 21.

The Bulldogs look to finish the regular season undefeated in conference play after going 10-0 against SEC competitors thus far. The team now carries an 11-match win streak dating back to the Intercollegiate Tennis Association National Team Indoor Championships on Feb. 18. This season, Georgia has played 17 ranked teams thus far, going 13-4 in those matches, including eight wins over top 25 teams.

32-TIME SEC CHAMPIONS

With the Bulldogs' win against No. 20 Florida in Gainesville on Sunday, Georgia clinched at least a share of the regular season Southeastern Conference Championship for the 32nd time in program history, which leads the SEC. Georgia can clinch the outright regular season SEC Championship with wins in its home matches against No. 12 Mississippi State and No. 25 Ole Miss this week.

Georgia will travel to Auburn, Ala. to compete in the SEC Tournament which begins on Thursday, April 20. With their 10-0 SEC record, the Bulldog's have already locked up a double bye until the quarterfinals on Friday. If the Bulldog's win one of the two matches this week, they will be a one seed in the tournament and if the team wins both matches, they will also go undefeated in SEC play for the first since 2016.

CLUTCH CLINCHING

In the ten conference matches Georgia has played in, six different players have earned the match-clinching win in singles: Bryde against Alabama and LSU, Quinn against Auburn and Kentucky, Thomas Paulsell did so against Vanderbilt in his first dual match result of the season, Henning capped off the team's wins over Stanford and Tennessee, Perez Peña confirmed the team's sweeps of Arkansas and South Carolina, and most recently Croyder earned his second clinch against Florida in a three-set battle to propel the team to its 32nd Southeastern Conference Championship.

DAWGS IN THE RANKINGS

In the latest team rankings from the Intercollegiate Tennis Association, Georgia rose one spot and is now the No. 7 team in the country.

Redshirt freshman Ethan Quinn is now No. 3 in the singles rankings and has won seven of his previous eight matches with a trio of match-clinching victories. The Fresno, Calif. native is the only freshman to have multiple wins on court one and one of two SEC players in the top five. With Henning now at No. 13, Georgia becomes one of two SEC schools to have multiple players in the top 15 of the singles rankings.

Blake Croyder, tied for the team's leader in dual match singles wins with 12, moved to No. 107. With 97 career singles wins each, both Croyder and Henning are six away from entering the top 20 in program history. Croyder has been ranked in each edition of the ITA singles rankings this season for the first time in his career.

Trent Bryde and Quinn make up the top spot for Georgia in doubles and rose to the No. 7 pair in the country in the latest doubles poll. This is the highest the two have been ranked together and the career-best ranking in doubles for Quinn. The tandem has won 10 matches this season on court one, including three point-clinching victories.

STRAIGHT-SET WINS

Georgia has straight-set victories in 49 of the team's 72 dual-match singles wins, good for a clip of 68.1 percent of the team's singles wins. No. 109 Croyder leads the team, with 11 of his 14 wins coming in straight-set decisions. Of those 49 straight-set wins, 31 of them came in matches that were 6-4, 6-4 or better. Perez Peña leads the team in this statistic with eight, No. 105 Croyder has seven, No. 4 Quinn has six, No. 13 Henning has five, Giusca has three and Bryde and Paulsell each have one.

LOVE, THE DAWGS

The Bulldogs have been winning at a high rate in singles competition since Valentine's Day. In the team's last 10 matches, each player has a winning percentage above .500 in singles. No. 19 Henning is currently riding a staggering eight-match win streak, all of which have come against conference opponents.

Since the start of conference play, Georgia has impressed on the top three courts. Since the team's 5-2 win at No. 58 Alabama, No. 4 Quinn, No. 19 Henning and Bryde are a combined 22-2 on courts one, two and three respectively.

SOPHOMORE SURGE

With a singles record of 23-10, sophomore Miguel Perez Peña has already increased his win total by 11 from last season, the highest on the team of any returning player. The Castellon de la Plana, Spain native currently leads the team in wins, going 10-5 in the fall and now 13-5 in the dual match season. Perez Peña has won 10 of his last 12 matches dating back to the team's win against Georgia Tech on Feb. 12 and holds two wins on court five. He clinched the sweep against No. 5 South Carolina last week with a straight set win against No. 88 Casey Hoole, 6-3, 6-2.

DIAZ'S DETAILS

On the possibility of first perfect SEC record since 2016...

"It would be a great accomplishment. Nothing more than that, just a standing goal that these guys continue to pursue. With everyone in our conference already with two losses and us being undefeated, that speaks volumes of what these guys have gone through not only on the road but also big challenges at home against top five, top six teams in the country."

On the Ole Miss Senior Day match...

"I'm hoping for good weather and hoping to get maybe some of the football G-Day crowd to come by Dan Magill Tennis Complex and really witness a great match. Ole Miss is an outstanding team, and our seniors are very deserving of a great crowd for this last home regular season match."

SENIOR DAY SATURDAY

Trent Bryde

Blake Croyder

Teodor Giusca

Philip Henning

Britton Johnston

The team will celebrate the final home regular season match for the team's five fifth-year seniors – Trent Bryde, Blake Croyder, Teodor Giusca, Philip Henning and Britton Johnston. The players have a combined 615 wins in both singles and doubles between them across their careers.

Bryde holds a career record of 70-55 in singles and 71-50 in doubles. He is currently setting his career best in single season wins in both competitions with 19 wins each. The Suwannee native holds a career high ranking of 12 in singles and five in doubles, reaching those three different times. When asked to describe himself in one word, Bryde responded with passionate, saying that he takes the most pride in representing the "G" and allows the idea of playing for this program to bring the most out of him. Bryde will graduate with a degree in consumer economics in May.

Croyder, who grew up in Marietta and graduated from Johnson Ferry Academy, chose to attend Georgia because of the program's history and the support of the fans. He is currently tied with Eddie Jacques for 21st on the career combined wins list with 182 and needs one more win in singles to reach 100 in his career. Croyder's favorite tennis memory was earning the match-clinching win at No. 20 Florida that allowed the team to win its 32nd SEC championship. He will graduate with a Master of Science degree in financial planning.

Giusca joined the team this past year after playing for four years at Clemson. The graduate student chose Georgia for his final year of eligibility because he wanted to compete for championships and because it is one of the most respected programs in the country. The Bucharest, Romania native is the winner of 80 singles matches and 66 doubles matches during his five-year career. Giusca said his parents are his biggest inspiration due to all the sacrifices they made to help him to reach this point of his career. He will graduate in May with a master's degree in business analytics.

Henning is one of the winningest Bulldogs in program history with 98 career singles wins and 86 in doubles, tied with Hisham Hemda for the 18th-most in program history, for a combined total of 184, which ties him with Bobby Mariencheck for 19th on the career combined wins list. He holds career-best rankings of eight in singles and 14 in doubles and has primarily played on court two in both competitions in his collegiate career. The Bloemfontein, South Africa native listed one of his favorite memories at Georgia as clinching the team's 4-0 win over Ohio State. Henning will graduate with a bachelor's degree in computer science.

Johnston is one of three seniors to grow up in Georgia. He is native to Snellville and an alumnus of William and Reed Academy, being listed as the top recruit in the state and top 10 in the nation. Johnston first appeared in the doubles rankings with Croyder in fall at No. 55 after going 5-1 to start the year. Together, the two have clinched the doubles point for the team three times and are 16-11 on the year. He choose to become a Bulldog because he wanted to be a part of a legendary program and fell in love with the city of Athens. Johnston will graduate with a bachelor's degree in consumer economics.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

For the 32nd time in program history, the Georgia Bulldogs are the Southeastern Conference regular season champions.

Redshirt senior Blake Croyder earned the match-clinching win for the Bulldogs at No. 20 Florida on Sunday, April 9. Georgia has now won 11 consecutive matches and earned their first regular season conference title since 2017.

"For these guys, winning the conference championship means a heck of a lot and I am so proud of them," said Coach Diaz. "This past fall, when we had former players back at the alumni event, I introduced our team to the lettermen there. I asked everyone to raise their hand if they had won a championship ring during their time as a Bulldog, and every single player that was there raised their hand. Since 1971 and onward, everyone who played here for four years can say they won this conference. So, for our fifth-year seniors, it's been a huge goal for them, and this means a ton."

Georgia can claim the outright SEC crown with at least one win this weekend and has the change to go undefeated in conference play for the first time since 2016 with a pair of wins.
