THE MATCHUP

- The Tigers are on a nine-meet win streak against the Bulldogs from 2021.
- Missouri's first NQS this season is 196.995 compared to Georgia's 196.745.
- The Bulldogs are coming off of a win against Arkansas on Friday, Feb. 14 earning a team score of 197.125.
- MU and UGA share the same highest team score of 197.200.
- Mizzou holds a higher National Qualifying Score (NQS) over Georgia on bars (49.280-49.255), beam (49.250-49.075) and floor (49.375-49.220).
- The GymDogs return SEC Freshman of the Year Lily Smith to their roster for 2025 and ranks t-19th in individual beam NQS at 9.865.

GRIFFIN ETCHES NAME IN RECORD BOOKS

- Griffin's performance on Friday is the second 10.000 on floor a Mizzou gymnast has received, joining teammate Moore who achieved the feat at the Illinois Quad on March 17, 2024. She is the sixth Tiger to score a 10, five of which have come since 2023.
- Mizzou is one of three schools to achieve the top mark in multiple events this season. Griffin became the second-youngest individual to achieve the score both this year and in program history.
- As a team, the Tigers' NQS of 49.375 ranks fifth. Griffin now ranks 28th nationally in the event.
- Griffin's SEC Specialist of the Week honors marks her second weekly conference award, earning Freshman of the Week on Jan. 30, 2024, following her previous career-best of 9.975 in the team's win over No. 3 LSU.
- Missouri has won the SEC Specialist of the Week honors four times in the past five weeks and has now had a Tiger claim the award four times in a season for the second-straight year. Mizzou is one of three schools in the conference to ever have a Specialist of the Week four times in the same year.
- Five of the eight times Mizzou has earned a perfect routine have come in road or neutral-site meets.

NQS TAKES EFFECT

- The Road to Nationals rankings have switched over to NQS to determine its rankings following the seventh week of meets. NQS is calculated by taking a team or individual's top six scores, three of which come from away meets, dropping the highest score and averaging the remaining five.
- Mizzou's first NQS poll saw it positioned at No. 8 in the nation, its highest-ever first NQS ranking.
- The Tigers are also fifth overall in floor - their highest-ever NQS team ranking in any event. Mizzou earned the highest floor score in the SEC at Zou to the Lou and the second overall highest in the NCAA.
- Four Tigers are ranked in the top 10 individual event rankings - Celestine at eighth on bars, Hu at fourth on beam, Moore ninth on floor and Mara Titarsolej 10th on bars.
- With Celestine and Titarsolej in the top 10 of the bars rankings, Mizzou joins four other schools with a pair of teammates in a single event.

WANT SOME MO'(ORE)

- Moore, a senior, has had a fantastic start to her 2025 campaign, setting the best vault score of 2025 thus far against No. 1 Oklahoma on Jan. 17, recording a 9.975. The vault score against the Sooners marked the fourth time in her career to score or exceed a 9.975.
- She notched her season-best score on floor of 9.950 at Zou to the Lou, one of three Tigers to score a 9.950 or better on floor during the meet.
- She holds the program's lone perfect 10 on vault and two additional scores of 9.975.
- Moore has earned a 9.900 or better in an event in six of the team's seven meets this season.
- She holds the most single-event titles on the team this season with six - four on floor and two on vault.
- Moore also notched a score of 9.925 on floor for the Tigers against Kentucky, marking her second score of 9.900 or better on the apparatus for the 2025 season and the 30th time in her collegiate career, which leads the team.

- Across her 46 collegiate meets throughout her career, Moore has scored 9.900 in one of the three events she competes in all but five of them. She has scored 9.900 an impressive 21 times on vault and 32 times on floor.

HU DID THAT? SHE DID

- Following up on her first career 10.000 against No. 1 Oklahoma, redshirt senior Hu nearly achieved perfection in the following two weeks, earning a pair of 9.975s on balance beam in the team's meets against No. 6 Kentucky and No. 3 LSU.
- Hu made history in the team's meet against OU, recording the first perfect 10.000 of the 2025 NCAA Division-I women's gymnastics season and her career during her routine on balance beam.
- The redshirt senior is one of two gymnasts nationally with three scores of 9.975 on beam this season.
- She stands fifth in the country in beam scoring an average of 9.904.
- Only one Mizzou gymnast has earned multiple 10.000 scores in a single season - Lauren Schwartzman on beam in 2004. Hu will look to join that list as the second in 2025.
- The Chicago native made the national spotlight since then, even being featured at No. 5 on the SportsCenter Top-10 the next day.
- Hu's performance is the fourth time a Mizzou gymnast finished with a 10 on beam, most recently done by Sienna Schreiber on March 3, 2024, against Arkansas.
- Five of the seven 10s in Mizzou gymnastics history have come since 2023.
- After the team's meet in Baton Rouge, La., Hu became just the second gymnast in the award's history to win three-consecutive SEC Specialist of the Week awards.
- Hu previously scored at least 9.950 on 15 different occasions before her first perfect 10.
- The only other time a Mizzou gymnast recorded a 10 on beam on the road was by Schwartzman on March 12, 2004, at the Texas Women's University Invitational.
- Hu spent the past year backpacking in Japan, South Korea, Singapore, Malaysia, Vietnam, Thailand, India, Mexico, Guatemala, El Salvador, Nicaragua, Colombia, Ecuador, Italy and Finland with her sister Elaine.
- In her most recent season of competition, the 2023 campaign, Hu competed in all 13 meets and posted a 9.900 or better on beam in 10. She earned second-team All-America status in the event and was on the end-of-season All-SEC team.

THE CELESTANDARD

- In her final season of competition, Celestine has continued to impress in each meet of the year, most recently setting a new personal-best all-around score of 39.625 at Zou to the Lou on Feb. 14, which ties the seventh-best in program history.
- Celestine led the Tigers on bars with a career-high score of 9.950, the highest score for Missouri on bars this season, earning a share of the event title at Zou to the Lou. She also set a season-high on beam of 9.875.
- The senior posted a 9.900 on bars and a 9.925 on floor, earning the event title in both events to help lead the team to its first conference win of the year against No. 6 Kentucky.
- During the team's season opener, Celestine competed all-around for the first time, taking the event title with a score of 39.350. She holds seven event titles in 2025.

JUST A FRESHMAN

- In her first time in the lineup for Mizzou, freshman Olivia Kelly looked like a seasoned vet while competing on bars and beam on national television against No. 6 Kentucky.
- Kelly competed third on beam for the Tigers, notching a 9.900 in her first routine on the event, which was the first time a Mizzou freshman reached the threshold this season.
- At Zou to the Lou, she competed on vault for the first time as a collegiate gymnast, scoring 9.750. She also notched a pair of 9.825s on bars and beam, respectively. Her result on bars tied her career-best result.
- Kelly followed up her performance with a 9.875 against No. 3 LSU on Jan. 31 and a 9.850 against Illinois on Feb. 9.
- She ranked 22nd nationally in average on beam before the team's meet on Feb. 14 at Zou to the Lou.

HEAD COACH • 12TH SEASON AT MIZZOU
CAREER: 97-78-1 • AT MIZZOU: 97-78-1

WELKER COACHING CAREER
- Illinois-Chicago, 1997-98 (Assistant Coach)
- St. Louis Gymnastics Center, 1998-07 (Head Coach)
- Bowling Green, 2007-08 (Assistant Coach)
- Michigan, 2008-13 (Assistant Coach)
- Mizzou 2014-present (Head Coach)

In his 12th season at the helm of the Mizzou gymnastics program, head coach Shannon Welker continues to make the Tigers a rising power nationally.

2024
In Welker's 11th season, Missouri reached new heights, finishing with a 13-6 record and a program-record 197.420 NQS that ranked No. 13 in the country. The Tigers posted a score of 197 or higher in 12 of their 14 meets, the most in team history.

In postseason competition, the Tigers finished fifth at the SEC Championship meet, posting a school-record 197.275 to win the afternoon session. Missouri reached the NCAA Regional Final for a fourth consecutive season and finished the country ranked 11th in the nation, the team's second-best year-end ranking in program history.

Welker's squad started off its season with a bang, peaking at No. 3 in the first rankings of the year for the team's highest ranking ever. Three weeks later, the Tigers earned their biggest upset in program history, knocking off the eventual NCAA champion No. 3 LSU on Jan. 26 inside Hearnes Center.
As a team, Missouri set program records on three different events. The Tigers posted a 49.600 on bars at the Mizzou Quad on March 10, then scored a 49.500 on vault and a 49.700 on floor at the Illinois Quad on March 17 to end the regular season strong.

The Tigers racked up several accolades over the course of the season. Three Missouri gymnasts — Jocelyn Moore, Sienna Schreiber and Mara Titarsolej — each earned WCGA Regular Season All-America honors, marking the most gymnasts to earn the honor in a single season for the Tigers.

At the conference level, Missouri's awards were headlined by Jocelyn Moore winning 2024 SEC Event Specialist of the Year and Mara Titarsolej claiming a share of the SEC bars title to become Missouri's first bars conference champion. Additionally, Missouri earned a conference-best and program-record seven All-SEC selections at the SEC Championship.

Another record-breaking season for the Tigers led by Welker, ending with the highest regional score in program history with 197.600 and a 3rd place finish at the NCAA Regional Final. Mizzou's score of 49.450 also earned them the highest vault score in regional competition. The Tigers set a new program-high championships score, beating both Arkansas and Georgia at the SEC Championships, along with a 2nd place finish at the NCAA Regional Second Round. Under Welker's coaching, the Tigers secured the 14th rank nationally and a 10-3 record, including wins over five nationally-ranked opponents.

Five gymnasts earned All-SEC Honors for the second year in a row: Amari Celestine, Helen Hu, Jocelyn Moore, Alisa Sheremeta and Sienna Schreiber. Moore and Hu were also named Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association (WCGA) Regular Season All-Americans for the season. Claiming first-team honors on vault, Moore posted this accolade for the second consecutive time and Hu claimed second-team honors on beam.

In a remarkable 2022 season, Welker led the Tigers to a 5th place finish in NCAA National Championships in April — the best finish in program history. The Tigers ranked 11th nationally, defeating LSU and Iowa in the NCAA Regional Second Round. Missouri grabbed hold of a top-two finish, topping UCLA and Iowa State, at the Raleigh Regional to secure a spot at the NCAA Championships for only the second time ever. Under Welker's leadership, the Tigers also won on the road against Georgia for the first time.

Two gymnasts received Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association (WGCA) Regular Season All-America honors — Jocelyn Moore and Sienna Schreiber. Moore claimed first team honors on vault, while Schreiber took second team honors on the beam and all-around. Welker received SEC Coach of the Year for his performance.

Mizzou concluded the 2021 campaign ranked 14th nationally for the second year in a row, the first time since the 2009 and 2010 seasons the Tigers posted back-to-back top 14 finishes. Competing in a Southeastern Conference-only regular season, Welker led Missouri to wins over No. 15 Georgia and No. 19 Auburn, while also finishing ahead of No. 9 Arkansas at the 2021 SEC Championship.

In the NCAA Tuscaloosa second round, the Tigers erupted with a 197.325, the third-highest score in program history, to advance to the NCAA Regional Final. It marked the first time Mizzou competed in a regional final in the revamped postseason format.

Individually, the Tigers had a WCGA Regular Season All-American for the second year in a row, as sophomore Sienna Schreiber nabbed second team accolades on beam. Schreiber and freshman Amaya Marshall also claimed All-SEC honors, with Schreiber earning a spot on the All-SEC Team and Marshall on the SEC All-Freshman Team.

In 2020, Welker's Tigers vaulted up the rankings as the season progressed, reaching 14th in late March when the season was abruptly cut short prior to the regular season finale. Over the course of the season, Mizzou defeated No. 11 Minnesota and No. 19 Nebraska and twice posted team scores among the top 10 in program history. Additionally, Welker's vault squad notched two scores that ranked in the program's top 10 on the event.

The Tigers' National Qualifying Score (NQS) of 196.635 at the time the season ended was the third-best such score in program history and the team's highest since 2004. Freshman Helen Hu emerged as one of the nation's top gymnasts, claiming NACGC/W All-America first team (beam) and second team (bars) honors, as well as SEC Event Specialist of the Year accolades.

The 2019 Tigers finished 17th in the national rankings, which tied the team's best finish since 2010. At the 2019 NCAA Athens Regional, Missouri tallied both the highest regional score (196.625) and the top regional beam total (49.200) in program history. Senior Brooke Kelly Senior Brooke Kelly became the 10th Tiger to earn an individual berth to the NCAA Championships after she qualified on beam.

Mizzou knocked off four top 25 teams during the 2019 season, including a win over No. 10 Kentucky and a tie with No. 7 Michigan.

The Tigers also recorded the second-highest beam score in program history (49.425), the sixth (49.425) and seventh (49.400) best floor scores and the ninth-best vault total (49.275) over the course of the campaign.

2018
Welker's fifth season at Mizzou saw the Tigers knock off three top 10 teams during the regular season. On March 2, Missouri defeated No. 5 Florida, 196-925-196.925, for the first victory over the Gators in program history. Mizzou also defeated Arkansas twice this year while the Razorbacks were ranked in the top 10.

Overall, the Tigers went 9-7 in the regular season, including conference wins over No. 5 Florida and No. 10 Arkansas. The squad also concluded the year ranked 20th in the nation, the third-straight season Mizzou ended the year in the top 20.

2017
In his fourth year with Missouri, Welker's Tigers finished 17th in the national rankings and a third-place finish at the NCAA Gainesville Regional, only one spot shy of qualifying for the NCAA Championships. The 2017 season also saw Mizzou go 3-4 in Southeastern Conference dual meet action, with wins over No. 12 Arkansas, No. 12 Kentucky and No. 18 Auburn.

The Tigers entered the season with just one SEC dual win in program history. Additionally, Missouri recorded the third and fourth-highest scores in program history in 2017, with a 197.200 against Auburn and a 197.150 one week later against Kentucky.

During the 2016 season, Welker led Mizzou to its highest NCAA Regional (third) finish since 2010. Overall, the Tigers finished the year ranked 19th in the national rankings, the team's highest since 2010, and ahead of Southeastern Conference foes Arkansas and Kentucky. Missouri recorded three scores of at least 196.625 or higher during the year in 2016, only the second time Mizzou accomplished that in the 37 year history of the program.

Additionally, the Tigers defeated No. 9 Georgia 195.800-195.350 for the team's first top-10 win since 2012. Under Welker's tutelage, freshman Morgan Porter earned SEC Freshman of the Year honors and was the first Tiger gymnast to qualify for the NCAA Championships since 2012.

Under Welker's direction, the Tigers were the nation's most improved program in 2015. Mizzou finished the season ranked 21st, a full 20-spot increase from the previous year and the biggest jump in the country.

The 2015 Tigers also qualified for their first NCAA Regional since 2012, where they scored a 196.100, the second-best Regional score in program history. Additionally, Mizzou entered the top-25 for the first time since 2012 and scored at least 195 10 times in 13 meets. The Tigers also topped 196 twice during the season for the first time since 2012 as well.

2014
In his first year in Columbia in 2014, Welker quickly installed his Championship Culture to the squad. Over the season, the Tigers went 6-7 in the regular season and scored the sixth-best bars score (49.300) in program history against George Washington.

Welker brought a wealth of experience to Columbia after five years as an assistant coach at the University of Michigan and nine years as the head coach and program director at the St. Louis Gymnastic Center.

PRIOR TO MIZZOU
During his time at Michigan, Welker was primarily responsible for coaching the vault and floor squads in addition to serving as the recruiting coordinator. Welker guided his vault squads to three top ten finishes during his time at Michigan, and his 2012 vault team finished at No. 11 in the nation. Under his direction, the Michigan floor squads also finished among the nation's top-10 four times, while the team earned top-15 finishes in each of his seasons in Ann Arbor.

Welker coached five gymnasts to 12 All-American honors while at Michigan including the 2013 NCAA National Floor Champion, Joanna Sampson. He also produced three NCAA Regional Championship floor title winners and back-to-back NCAA Regional Champions on vault. Four of his gymnasts won event titles at the Big Ten Championships, and Welker assisted the Wolverines to three NCAA National Championships as well.

Before coaching at Michigan, Welker spent one year as an assistant coach at Bowling Green, where he coached two gymnasts to the NCAA Regional Championships for the first time in program history. Before working with the Falcons, Welker served as the head women's gymnastics coach and program director at the St. Louis Gymnastic Center for nine years.
