THE WARM UP PERIOD

LOCKDOWN ON BARS

-Missouri enters its upcoming meet ranking fourth on uneven bars nationally in national qualifying score (NQS), good for its highest NQS ranking since March 13, 2006.
-Three of the top-10 scores in program history have come in 2025 - 49.475 against Illinois, which ranks third, and 49.425 at Beauty and the Beast and against Georgia this past week, which ties for seventh.
-The team is led by Amari Celestine and Mara Titarsolej who rank sixth and 10th in the event individually, respectively. This is the third time in program history a pair of teammates have been ranked in the top 10 of an event together at the same time.
-Five Tigers rank in the top 100 on bars.

FAB FLOOR TAKEOVER

-Mizzou's floor squad could be one of the best in program history. The team ranks fifth in NQS at 49.445.
-The Tigers notched their best score on floor ever with 49.725 at Zou to the Lou, beating its previous best of 49.700 at the Illinois Quad last season. This ranks as the third-best team score on the event this season.
-The Fab Floor has scored at least 49.400 in five of its eight meets this season.
-Kennedy Griffin scored 10.000 in her floor routine, becoming the fourth gymnast this season to achieve perfection in the event. She is the second Mizzou gymnast to score 10.000 on floor and ranks 28th in the country in NQS.
-The Tigers are led by Jocelyn Moore on the apparatus, who ranks 13th in the event. She has scored at least 9.900 in her previous four routines and reached 9.925 four times this season.
-Four MU gymnasts rank in the top 40 of the event in NQS - Moore (13), Celestine (23), Griffin (28) and Elise Tisler (39).

DON'T LET THE TIGERS GET HOT

-Mizzou has been on fire in 2025, with its 11-3 record marking its best start to a season since 2009.
-The Tigers rank tied for third in the Southeastern Conference standings after week eight, fourth in NQS and is one of eight in the country with at least 197 for its team NQS.
-For the fourth time in last the five years, Mizzou owns two top-15 dual meet wins in a season.

THE MATCHUP

- Mizzou travels to Gainesville to compete against Florida for its sixth SEC meet of the 2025 season.
- The No. 6 Gators are coming off a loss from No. 1 Oklahoma while the No. 8 Tigers are riding a five-meet win streak.
- MU ranks higher than UF in team NQS on floor and bars, while UF holds the advantage on vault and beam.
- Florida has six individuals ranked in their respective events compared to Missouri's five.
- The Tigers last faced the Gators at the 2024 rendition of the Zou to the Lou Quad, where Florida won the meet with a team score of 197.925.
- Mizzou will be looking to earn its first win against UF since March 2, 2018, when the Tigers defeated the No. 5 Gators at Hearnes Center, 196.925-196.700.

THE CELESTANDARD

- In her final season of competition, Celestine has continued to impress in each meet of the year, most recently setting a new personal-best all-around score of 39.625 at Zou to the Lou on Feb. 14, which ties the seventh-best in program history.
- With her result against Georgia on bars, Celestine became the only Tiger since 1999 to record five-straight scores of at least 9.900 in the event. Only two gymnasts have done so four times in a row - Titarsolej in 2024 and Jodie Heinicka in 2006.
- Celestine led the Tigers on bars with a career-high score of 9.950, the highest score for Missouri on bars this season, earning a share of the event title at Zou to the Lou.
- The senior posted a 9.900 on bars and a 9.925 on floor, earning the event title in both events to help lead the team to its first conference win of the year against No. 6 Kentucky.
- During the team's season opener, Celestine competed all-around for the first time, taking the event title with a score of 39.350. She holds seven event titles in 2025.

GRIFFIN ETCHES NAME IN RECORD BOOKS

- Griffin's performance at Zou to the Lou is the second 10.000 on floor a Mizzou gymnast has received, joining teammate Moore who achieved the feat at the Illinois Quad on March 17, 2024. She is the sixth Tiger to score a 10, five of which have come since 2023.
- Mizzou is one of three schools to achieve the top mark in multiple events this season. Griffin became the second-youngest individual to achieve the score both this year and in program history.
- As a team, the Tigers' NQS of 49.445 ranks fifth. Griffin now ranks 28th nationally in the event.
- Griffin's SEC Specialist of the Week honors marks her second weekly conference award, earning Freshman of the Week on Jan. 30, 2024, following her previous career-best of 9.975 in the team's win over No. 3 LSU.
- Missouri has won the SEC Specialist of the Week honors five times in the past six weeks. Mizzou is one of three schools in the conference to ever have a Specialist of the Week five times in the same season.
- Five of the eight times Mizzou has earned a perfect routine have come in road or neutral-site meets. Five of the seven 10s in Mizzou gymnastics history have come since 2023.
- Griffin sealed the Tigers' victory against No. 12 Georgia with a 9.925 on floor after the teams were tied heading into the final routine of the fourth rotation of the meet.

HU DID THAT? SHE DID

- Hu was named SEC Specialist of the Week for the fourth time this season on Tuesday, becoming just the third individual in conference history to earn the honor four times in a season.
- The redshirt senior is one of two gymnasts nationally with three scores of 9.975 on beam this season. She posted the score again on Friday, Feb. 21 against Georgia.
- Hu made history in the team's meet against OU, recording the first perfect 10.000 of the 2025 NCAA Division-I women's gymnastics season and her career during her routine on balance beam.
- Following up on her first career 10 against No. 1 Oklahoma, Hu nearly achieved perfection in the following weeks, recording a pair of 9.975s.

- She stands third nationally in beam NQS at 9.935 and fifth in the country in beam scoring an average of 9.904.
- Only one Mizzou gymnast has earned multiple 10.000 scores in a single season - Lauren Schwartzman on beam in 2004. Hu will look to join that list as the second in 2025.
- The Chicago native made the national spotlight since then, even being featured at No. 5 on the SportsCenter Top-10 the day after the team's meet against OU.
- Hu's performance is the fourth time a Mizzou gymnast finished with a 10 on beam, most recently done by Sienna Schreiber on March 3, 2024, against Arkansas.
- After the team's meet in Baton Rouge, La., Hu became just the second gymnast in the award's history to win three-consecutive SEC Specialist of the Week awards.
- Hu previously scored at least 9.950 on 15 different occasions before her first perfect 10.
- Hu spent the past year backpacking in Japan, South Korea, Singapore, Malaysia, Vietnam, Thailand, India, Mexico, Guatemala, El Salvador, Nicaragua, Colombia, Ecuador, Italy and Finland with her sister Elaine.
- In her most recent season of competition, the 2023 campaign, Hu competed in all 13 meets and posted a 9.900 or better on beam in 10. She earned second-team All-America status in the event and was on the end-of-season All-SEC team.

NQS TAKES EFFECT

- Road to Nationals has switched over to NQS to determine its rankings following the seventh week of meets. NQS is calculated by taking a team or individual's top six scores, three of which come from away meets, dropping the highest score and averaging the remaining five.
- Mizzou's first NQS poll saw it positioned at No. 8 in the nation, its highest-ever first NQS ranking. The team held its spot and stayed at No. 8 in the second week of NQS with a score of 197.095.
- Missouri claims a top 10 spot in three events - fifth in the nation on floor, fourth on bars and eighth on beam.
- The Tigers' highest-ranked individual is Hu, who is third nationally on beam. Her No. 3 ranking ties for the second-highest in program history, only surpassed by Schwartzman who was ranked second on beam in 2004.
- Celestine and Titarsolej share spots in the top 10 on bars, standing sixth and 10th, respectively. This is the first time since 2006 that the program has had a pair of gymnasts rank in the top 10 of an event's NQS rankings.
- SEC programs make up the top two and six of the top 10 in the week eight poll.
- All nine of the SEC gymnastics programs are in the top 17 of the rankings, with every program holding an NQS of 196.690 or better.

WANT SOME MO'[ORE]

- Moore, a senior, has had a fantastic start to her 2025 campaign, setting the best vault score of 2025 thus far against No. 1 Oklahoma on Jan. 17, recording a 9.975. The vault score against the Sooners marked the fourth time in her career to score or exceed a 9.975.
- She notched her season-best score on floor of 9.950 at Zou to the Lou, one of three Tigers to score a 9.950 or better on floor during the meet.
- She holds the program's lone perfect 10 on vault and two additional scores of 9.975.
- Moore has earned a 9.900 or better in an event in six of the team's seven meets this season.
- Moore also notched a score of 9.925 on floor for the Tigers against Kentucky. She has scored 9.900 or better on the apparatus five times in the 2025 season and 33 times in her collegiate career, which leads the team.
- Across her 49 collegiate meets throughout her career, Moore has scored 9.900 in one of the three events she competes in all but six of them. She has scored 9.900 an impressive 21 times on vault and 33 times on floor.

STEPPING IN AND STEPPING UP

- With Moore sliding out of the lineup against Georgia due to illness, freshman Kaia Tanskanen stepped up and filled in her spot in the floor exercise for her first career routine and scored a 9.900 for Mizzou.

- Her score marked the third time a freshman earned at least 9.900 in their first collegiate performance in an event since 2020, joining Hu and Hannah Horton.
- Tanskanen is a four-time Finnish National Champion, a two-time World Championship Qualifier and a finalist in the 2023 European Championship.
- She got her start in the Tigers' lineup on vault, competing in the team's first five meets on the apparatus.

JUST A FRESHMAN

- In her first time in the lineup for Mizzou, freshman Olivia Kelly looked like a seasoned vet while competing on bars and beam on national television against No. 6 Kentucky.
- Kelly competed third on beam for the Tigers, notching a 9.900 in her first routine on the event, which was the first time a Mizzou freshman reached the threshold this season.
- At Zou to the Lou, she competed on vault for the first time as a collegiate gymnast and also notched a pair of 9.825s on bars and beam, respectively. Her result on bars tied her career-best result.
- Kelly followed up her performance with a 9.875 against No. 3 LSU on Jan. 31 and a 9.850 against Illinois on Feb. 9.
- She ranked 22nd nationally in average on beam before the team's meet on Feb. 14 at Zou to the Lou.
- Kelly's first routine of her collegiate career came on the uneven bars, where she went fourth in the lineup and earned a solid 9.825 on Jan. 26.

STRIVING FOR MORE-

- Heading into the ninth meet of the year, Mizzou is tied for third in the SEC standings and 11-3 overall - the program's best record to start a season since 2009.
- This is the third time a team under Coach Welker reached 11 wins in the regular season.
- Mizzou's win also marked the third year in a row the program earned a win in a dual meet over a top-10 team.
- MU's win on Friday marked its 10th-straight win against UGA since 2021 and fifth-consecutive meet with a team score of at least 197.000.
- The Tigers won their conference home opener for the third-straight year and the fifth time in Welker's 12th year at the helm of the program against No. 6 Kentucky on Jan. 26.

SIGNED, SEALED, DELIVERED

- Director of Athletics Laird Veatch announced on Thursday, Jan. 2 that gymnastics head coach Shannon Welker signed a contract extension to remain at the helm of the program through 2029.
- Since taking over Mizzou's program in May of 2013, Welker transformed the Tigers into a consistent contender on the national stage.
- He led the program to historic milestones, including multiple NCAA Championship appearances, record-breaking team scores, home attendance records and the development of numerous All-Americans and conference honorees.

UP NEXT

- Missouri gymnastics competes in Hearnes Center one last time this season competing against No. 11 Auburn on SEC Network on March 9 at noon.
- With the win, Mizzou would clinch its first-ever undefeated home season.
- The Tigers last competed against Auburn in 2024 but fell short at Neville Arena, 197.425-197.000.

SHANNON WELKER

HEAD COACH • 12TH SEASON AT MIZZOU
CAREER: 98-78-1 • AT MIZZOU: 98-78-1

WELKER COACHING CAREER
- Illinois-Chicago, 1997-98 (Assistant Coach)
- St. Louis Gymnastics Center, 1998-07 (Head Coach)
- Bowling Green, 2007-08 (Assistant Coach)
- Michigan, 2008-13 (Assistant Coach)
- Mizzou 2014-present (Head Coach)

In his 12th season at the helm of the Mizzou gymnastics program, head coach Shannon Welker continues to make the Tigers a rising power nationally.

In Welker's 11th season, Missouri reached new heights, finishing with a 13-6 record and a program-record 197.420 NQS that ranked No. 13 in the country. The Tigers posted a score of 197 or higher in 12 of their 14 meets, the most in team history.

In postseason competition, the Tigers finished fifth at the SEC Championship meet, posting a school-record 197.275 to win the afternoon session. Missouri reached the NCAA Regional Final for a fourth consecutive season and finished the country ranked 11th in the nation, the team's second-best year-end ranking in program history.

Welker's squad started off its season with a bang, peaking at No. 3 in the first rankings of the year for the team's highest ranking ever. Three weeks later, the Tigers earned their biggest upset in program history, knocking off the eventual NCAA champion No. 3 LSU on Jan. 26 inside Hearnes Center.
As a team, Missouri set program records on three different events. The Tigers posted a 49.600 on bars at the Mizzou Quad on March 10, then scored a 49.500 on vault and a 49.700 on floor at the Illinois Quad on March 17 to end the regular season strong.

The Tigers racked up several accolades over the course of the season. Three Missouri gymnasts — Jocelyn Moore, Sienna Schreiber and Mara Titarsolej — each earned WCGA Regular Season All-America honors, marking the most gymnasts to earn the honor in a single season for the Tigers.

At the conference level, Missouri's awards were headlined by Jocelyn Moore winning 2024 SEC Event Specialist of the Year and Mara Titarsolej claiming a share of the SEC bars title to become Missouri's first bars conference champion. Additionally, Missouri earned a conference-best and program-record seven All-SEC selections at the SEC Championship.

Another record-breaking season for the Tigers led by Welker, ending with the highest regional score in program history with 197.600 and a 3rd place finish at the NCAA Regional Final. Mizzou's score of 49.450 also earned them the highest vault score in regional competition. The Tigers set a new program-high championships score, beating both Arkansas and Georgia at the SEC Championships, along with a 2nd place finish at the NCAA Regional Second Round. Under Welker's coaching, the Tigers secured the 14th rank nationally and a 10-3 record, including wins over five nationally-ranked opponents.

Five gymnasts earned All-SEC Honors for the second year in a row: Amari Celestine, Helen Hu, Jocelyn Moore, Alisa Sheremeta and Sienna Schreiber. Moore and Hu were also named Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association (WCGA) Regular Season All-Americans for the season. Claiming first-team honors on vault, Moore posted this accolade for the second consecutive time and Hu claimed second-team honors on beam.

In a remarkable 2022 season, Welker led the Tigers to a 5th place finish in NCAA National Championships in April — the best finish in program history. The Tigers ranked 11th nationally, defeating LSU and Iowa in the NCAA Regional Second Round. Missouri grabbed hold of a top-two finish, topping UCLA and Iowa State, at the Raleigh Regional to secure a spot at the NCAA Championships for only the second time ever. Under Welker's leadership, the Tigers also won on the road against Georgia for the first time.

Two gymnasts received Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association (WGCA) Regular Season All-America honors — Jocelyn Moore and Sienna Schreiber. Moore claimed first team honors on vault, while Schreiber took second team honors on the beam and all-around. Welker received SEC Coach of the Year for his performance.

Mizzou concluded the 2021 campaign ranked 14th nationally for the second year in a row, the first time since the 2009 and 2010 seasons the Tigers posted back-to-back top 14 finishes. Competing in a Southeastern Conference-only regular season, Welker led Missouri to wins over No. 15 Georgia and No. 19 Auburn, while also finishing ahead of No. 9 Arkansas at the 2021 SEC Championship.

In the NCAA Tuscaloosa second round, the Tigers erupted with a 197.325, the third-highest score in program history, to advance to the NCAA Regional Final. It marked the first time Mizzou competed in a regional final in the revamped postseason format.

Individually, the Tigers had a WCGA Regular Season All-American for the second year in a row, as sophomore Sienna Schreiber nabbed second team accolades on beam. Schreiber and freshman Amaya Marshall also claimed All-SEC honors, with Schreiber earning a spot on the All-SEC Team and Marshall on the SEC All-Freshman Team.

In 2020, Welker's Tigers vaulted up the rankings as the season progressed, reaching 14th in late March when the season was abruptly cut short prior to the regular season finale. Over the course of the season, Mizzou defeated No. 11 Minnesota and No. 19 Nebraska and twice posted team scores among the top 10 in program history. Additionally, Welker's vault squad notched two scores that ranked in the program's top 10 on the event.

The Tigers' National Qualifying Score (NQS) of 196.635 at the time the season ended was the third-best such score in program history and the team's highest since 2004. Freshman Helen Hu emerged as one of the nation's top gymnasts, claiming NACGC/W All-America first team (beam) and second team (bars) honors, as well as SEC Event Specialist of the Year accolades.

The 2019 Tigers finished 17th in the national rankings, which tied the team's best finish since 2010. At the 2019 NCAA Athens Regional, Missouri tallied both the highest regional score (196.625) and the top regional beam total (49.200) in program history. Senior Brooke Kelly Senior Brooke Kelly became the 10th Tiger to earn an individual berth to the NCAA Championships after she qualified on beam.

Mizzou knocked off four top 25 teams during the 2019 season, including a win over No. 10 Kentucky and a tie with No. 7 Michigan.

The Tigers also recorded the second-highest beam score in program history (49.425), the sixth (49.425) and seventh (49.400) best floor scores and the ninth-best vault total (49.275) over the course of the campaign.

2018
Welker's fifth season at Mizzou saw the Tigers knock off three top 10 teams during the regular season. On March 2, Missouri defeated No. 5 Florida, 196-925-196.925, for the first victory over the Gators in program history. Mizzou also defeated Arkansas twice this year while the Razorbacks were ranked in the top 10.

Overall, the Tigers went 9-7 in the regular season, including conference wins over No. 5 Florida and No. 10 Arkansas. The squad also concluded the year ranked 20th in the nation, the third-straight season Mizzou ended the year in the top 20.

In his fourth year with Missouri, Welker's Tigers finished 17th in the national rankings and a third-place finish at the NCAA Gainesville Regional, only one spot shy of qualifying for the NCAA Championships. The 2017 season also saw Mizzou go 3-4 in Southeastern Conference dual meet action, with wins over No. 12 Arkansas, No. 12 Kentucky and No. 18 Auburn.

The Tigers entered the season with just one SEC dual win in program history. Additionally, Missouri recorded the third and fourth-highest scores in program history in 2017, with a 197.200 against Auburn and a 197.150 one week later against Kentucky.

During the 2016 season, Welker led Mizzou to its highest NCAA Regional (third) finish since 2010. Overall, the Tigers finished the year ranked 19th in the national rankings, the team's highest since 2010, and ahead of Southeastern Conference foes Arkansas and Kentucky. Missouri recorded three scores of at least 196.625 or higher during the year in 2016, only the second time Mizzou accomplished that in the 37 year history of the program.

Additionally, the Tigers defeated No. 9 Georgia 195.800-195.350 for the team's first top-10 win since 2012. Under Welker's tutelage, freshman Morgan Porter earned SEC Freshman of the Year honors and was the first Tiger gymnast to qualify for the NCAA Championships since 2012.

Under Welker's direction, the Tigers were the nation's most improved program in 2015. Mizzou finished the season ranked 21st, a full 20-spot increase from the previous year and the biggest jump in the country.

The 2015 Tigers also qualified for their first NCAA Regional since 2012, where they scored a 196.100, the second-best Regional score in program history. Additionally, Mizzou entered the top-25 for the first time since 2012 and scored at least 195 10 times in 13 meets. The Tigers also topped 196 twice during the season for the first time since 2012 as well.

In his first year in Columbia in 2014, Welker quickly installed his Championship Culture to the squad. Over the season, the Tigers went 6-7 in the regular season and scored the sixth-best bars score (49.300) in program history against George Washington.

Welker brought a wealth of experience to Columbia after five years as an assistant coach at the University of Michigan and nine years as the head coach and program director at the St. Louis Gymnastic Center.

PRIOR TO MIZZOU
During his time at Michigan, Welker was primarily responsible for coaching the vault and floor squads in addition to serving as the recruiting coordinator. Welker guided his vault squads to three top ten finishes during his time at Michigan, and his 2012 vault team finished at No. 11 in the nation. Under his direction, the Michigan floor squads also finished among the nation's top-10 four times, while the team earned top-15 finishes in each of his seasons in Ann Arbor.

Welker coached five gymnasts to 12 All-American honors while at Michigan including the 2013 NCAA National Floor Champion, Joanna Sampson. He also produced three NCAA Regional Championship floor title winners and back-to-back NCAA Regional Champions on vault. Four of his gymnasts won event titles at the Big Ten Championships, and Welker assisted the Wolverines to three NCAA National Championships as well.

Before coaching at Michigan, Welker spent one year as an assistant coach at Bowling Green, where he coached two gymnasts to the NCAA Regional Championships for the first time in program history. Before working with the Falcons, Welker served as the head women's gymnastics coach and program director at the St. Louis Gymnastic Center for nine years.

ABOUT WELKER
A four-year competitor on the University of Illinois at Chicago men's gymnastics team, Welker served as a team captain for three years and earned NCAA All-American honors in 1996. He was also awarded UIC Athlete of the Year honors that season. Welker spent a year as an assistant men's gymnastics coach for UIC, and was also inducted into the University of Illinois at Chicago Athletics Hall of Fame in 2005.

Welker earned his undergraduate degree in kinesiology from the University of Illinois at Chicago in 1998, and also received his master's degree in sports management from Eastern Michigan University in 2012. Welker and his wife, Molly, have two sons, Ian and Brendan.
