CONFERENCE PLAY CONTINUES

The Bulldogs continue Southeastern Conference action this week on the road, beginning with No. 5 South Carolina on Friday at 6 p.m. ET and then traveling to Gainesville to take on No. 20 Florida on Sunday at noon. The program holds a 40-10 record against the Gamecocks and a 60-25 mark versus the Gators all time.

Should Georgia win both matches this weekend, the team will clinch at least a share of its 32nd SEC regular season championship.

In its two matches last weekend, Georgia defeated No. 4 Kentucky by a 5-2 result at home and then beat No. 59 Arkansas on the road, 4-0. The team will close out its home slate and the regular season at home against No. 14 Mississippi State on Friday, April 14 and No. 29 Ole Miss on Sunday, April 16.

The Bulldogs concluded a perfect month of March, going 7-0 and now carry a nine-match win streak dating back to the Intercollegiate Tennis Association National Team Indoor Championships on Feb. 18.

CLUTCH CLINCHING

In the eight conference matches Georgia has played in, six different players have earned the match-clinching win in singles: Bryde against Alabama and LSU, Quinn against Auburn and Kentucky, Croyder against Texas A&M, Thomas Paulsell did so against Vanderbilt in his first dual match result of the season, Henning capped off the Bulldogs comeback against Tennessee and most recently Perez Peña confirmed the team's sweep of Arkansas.

In total, six different players have earned the winning point for Georgia in singles this season: Bryde with five, Henning with three, Quinn with two and Croyder, Paulsell and Perez Peña with one each.

DIAZ'S DETAILS

On the team's match against South Carolina…
"We certainly are playing for a lot. We're playing for a big prize, and we certainly see this as one of our most important matches this year, but we've played plenty of important matches. For us, it's a matter of knowing that we're going to be playing in front of a big crowd in a road environment. Our guys have had a lot of experience being on the road this year quite a lot and facing good teams. I think we're well prepared, we're playing well and we know what to expect against South Carolina. They're tenacious, they're a great team and it should be a wonderful match."

On looking ahead to the Florida match…
"We're trying to take this one match at a time. We're playing two very good teams – they're capable, talented and well-coached. We go into both competitions, regardless of the outcome of the first one, ready to flip the page and play another great, tough match. We need to stay focused, not lose intensity. That's what we've been talking to these guys about – our best tennis is capable of beating anyone in the country, but we know that there are many teams, that if you're just a little bit off or not well prepared, that anyone can get you."

On Teodor Giusca's impact on the team…
"Teodor has played a huge role in this team. He is an extremely hard worker and has a lot of enthusiasm that is contagious. He is unselfish and is ready to play at any spot – he has probably played at more spots in our lineup than anyone else. He's willing to play wherever is needed to help this team and I will miss him a lot next season."

DAWGS IN THE RANKINGS

In the latest team rankings from the Intercollegiate Tennis Association, Georgia rose one spot and is now the No. 7 team in the country.

Redshirt freshman Ethan Quinn is now No. 3 in the singles rankings and has won seven of his previous eight matches with a trio of match-clinching victories. The Fresno, Calif. native is the only freshman to have multiple wins on court one and one of two SEC players in the top five. With Henning now at No. 13, Georgia becomes one of two SEC schools to have multiple players in the top 15 of the singles rankings.

Blake Croyder, tied for the team's leader in dual match singles wins with 12, moved to No. 107. With 97 career singles wins each, both Croyder and Henning are six away from entering the top 20 in program history. Croyder has been ranked in each edition of the ITA singles rankings this season for the first time in his career.

Trent Bryde and Quinn make up the top spot for Georgia in doubles and rose to the No. 7 pair in the country in the latest doubles poll. This is the highest the two have been ranked together and the career-best ranking in doubles for Quinn. The tandem has won 10 matches this season on court one, including three point-clinching victories.

STRAIGHT-SET WINS

Georgia has straight-set victories in 39 of the team's 58 dual-match singles wins, good for a clip of 67.2 percent of the team's singles wins. No. 90 Croyder leads the team, with seven of his eight wins coming in straight-set decisions. Of those 39 straight-set wins, 22 of them came in matches that were 6-4, 6-4 or better. Perez Peña leads the team in this statistic with six, No. 99 Croyder has five, No. 17 Henning and No. 4 Quinn have four each, No. 116 Giusca has two and Paulsell has one.

LOVE, THE DAWGS

The Bulldogs have been winning at a high rate in singles competition since Valentine's Day. In the team's last 12 matches, each player has a winning percentage above .500 in singles, with two different athletes currently riding at least a four-match win streak – Perez Peña (six) and No. 13 Henning (seven).

Since the start of conference play, Georgia has impressed on the top three courts. Since the team's 5-2 win at No. 58 Alabama, No. 3 Quinn, No. 13 Henning and Bryde are a combined 19-2 on courts one, two and three respectively.

SOPHOMORE SURGE

With a singles record of 22-9, sophomore Miguel Perez Peña has already increased his win total by 10 from last season, the highest on the team of any returning player. The Castellon de la Plana, Spain native currently leads the team in wins, going 10-5 in the fall and now 12-4 in the dual match season. Perez Peña has won nine of his last 11 matches dating back to the team's win against Georgia Tech on Feb. 12 and holds a win on court five. With a 12-4 spring record, he is tied with No. 13 Henning for the best win percentage of anyone on the team at .750 percent.
