No. 40 Georgia 4, No. 48 Arkansas 0 No. 40 Georgia 7, The Citadel 0

ATHENS, Ga. — The No. 40 Georgia men's tennis team won both of its double-header matches by sweeps on Sunday, defeating No. 48 Arkansas, 4-0, and The Citadel, 7-0.

No. 58 Ryan Colby earned his second clinch as a Bulldog (10-9, 3-4 SEC) in the team's win over the Razorbacks (14-8, 1-5 SEC). In doubles, Freddy Blaydes and Niels Ratiu clinched the point and notched their highest-ranked win of their careers against Arkansas' No. 29 Bozo Barun and Jared Horwood.

"Really pleased with today and this weekend," head coach Manuel Diaz said. "Great step in the right direction. Our guys are really growing and really coming along."

Georgia took the doubles point after locking in wins on courts one and two.

Colby and Thomas Paulsell took the first win from the second position, quickly defeating Connor Smillie and Jacob Sweeney in straight games, followed by Blaydes and Ratiu giving the team the doubles point for the 10th time this season.

In singles action, No. 61 Paulsell took his third conference win on court one with his three-set victory over Barun by a 1-6, 6-2, 6-1 score. Ratiu followed No. 61 Paulsell by defeating Melvin Manuel, taking the final four points in his second-set breaker to secure his match, 6-3, 7-6(5).

On court two, No. 58 Ryan Colby quickly followed suit by beating Gerard Planelles Ripoll 7-6(3), 6-3 to clinch the match for the Bulldogs, the fifth clinch of his collegiate career.

"It was kind of a difficult start at the beginning, but we picked it up," said

Colby. "It was looking tight for a little bit, but me and Thomas [Paulsell] did a great job of rebounding in the second set for him and in the third, he did well. I clinched a good tiebreaker as well."

The Bulldogs used the momentum from their sweep over Arkansas to propel them into their second match of the afternoon against the Citadel.

The Bulldogs secured the doubles point after earning wins on courts two and three. Davis Taylor and Parker Jacques picked up their first point-clinching win of their careers, defeating Lucas Robins and Noah Van Dyke, 6-4, on court three.

"I'm very pleased, especially with our doubles that continue to be a strength now," said Diaz. "We've got a lot of momentum there."

Georgia stayed in rhythm, taking the first point in singles as Parker Jacques moved to 3-0 in dual match play by beating Lucas Robins in a 6-1, 6-2 decision on court five. Ratiu then grabbed another point for the Bulldogs, getting the win over Teo Cario 6-2, 6-4, marking the sixth win in his last eight singles matches. Parker Mariencheck secured his first dual match win of his career, knocking off Ted Bagwell 6-4, 6-1 on court six.

No. 81 Miguel Perez Peña landed his first clinching win of the season on court one with a victory over Hayden Shoemaker by a 6-2, 6-1 score. Perez Peña's 21st match victory of the season, which ties him with Cyrus Mahjoub for most on the team, helped lift Georgia to a 7-0 win.

The Georgia Bulldogs will return to action at the Dan Magill Tennis Complex on Friday, March 29 against No. 16 South Carolina at 5:00 p.m. ET.

New-Look Bulldogs

Georgia's 2023-24 roster includes six new freshmen and a transfer. The team has enrolled five-stars Cyrus Mahjoob and Davis Taylor, four stars Parker Jacques and Parker Mariencheck as well as Belgium-native Niels Raitu. The Bulldogs also signed USC transfer Ryan Colby, a former blue-chip prospect and All-Pac 12 honoree. Freddy Blaydes, who has a career-high International Tennis Federation world juniors ranking of No. 117 and signed with the program in September, joined the team at the beginning of January.

Juniors Thomas Paulsell, Miguel Perez Peña and redshirt sophomore Filipe Costa are the only three players from the 2023 SEC regular season championship team still on the roster. Five of the remaining six used their final year of eligibility last season while Ethan Quinn opted to begin his professional career after winning the NCAA singles national championship in May.

Fantastic Fall

The Bulldogs had an impressive start to the year, claiming tournament titles in all three of their five fall events that multiple players participated in.

Perez Peña won the ITA Southeast Regional Singles Championship on Oct. 16 at the Ken Byers Tennis Complex, defeating South Florida's [12] Alvin Tudorica 7-6(5), 6-1. He joins Blake Croyder as the second consecutive Bulldog to win the title. His win marked the sixth time since 2013 that a Georgia player has won the singles regional championship. The Castellon de la Plana, Spain native clinched his spot at the ITA National Fall Championships after defeating teammate Cyrus Mahjoob in the semifinals.

Georgia claimed the singles and doubles titles in the red draw at the Southern Intercollegiate Championships on Oct. 1. In an all-Bulldog singles final, Thomas Paulsell earned a 6-4, 6-4, win over Perez Peña to win the red draw singles championship. In doubles, Ryan Colby and Niels Ratiu defeated Clemson's Noa Vukadin and Maxwell Smith, 8-6, in the finals. Colby and Ratiu are now 6-2 in doubles this fall.

Before the Southern Intercollegiate Championships, Colby's Bulldog career got off to a strong start at the Longhorn Invitational, winning the event's championship. A junior, Colby went 3-0 in singles with a pair of wins over top-25 players. He managed to beat No. 112 Loris Pourroy (FSU), No. 17 Micah Braswell (Texas), marking the highest-ranked win of his career, and former teammate No. 22 Peter Makk (USC) to end the weekend undefeated.

Georgia's successes earned the team a No. 18 national ranking, also putting four athletes in the ITA singles rankings and a pair in the doubles poll to begin the dual-match season. Colby leads the team with a No. 36 ranking, closely followed by No. 41 Thomas Paulsell, who picked up his highest-ranked win against 46th-ranked Nemanja Malesevic (Miss. St.) at the Georgia Tech Invitational. No. 43 Perez Peña and freshman No. 112 Cyrus Mahjoob close out the ranked Bulldogs in singles. In doubles, No. 42 Colby and Ratiu earned a spot after a 7-3 start together.

Diaz Announces Retirement

Legendary men's tennis head coach Manuel Diaz, the SEC's all-time leader in career wins who has guided Georgia to 29 conference championships, four NCAA national titles and a pair of ITA indoor national championships in 36 years, announced on Thursday, Feb. 22, that he will retire at the conclusion of the current 2023-24 season.

Diaz has a 46-year association with the Georgia men's tennis program. He was a two-time All-American during his playing days from 1972-75, and then served on Coach Dan Magill's staff as an assistant/associate head coach from 1982-88. He has been a part of each of Georgia's national championship teams and has won SEC Championships in each of the last five decades.

Diaz has been at the helm of the Georgia men's tennis program since the 1988-89 season, following the retirement of his mentor, Dan Magill. During his tenure, Diaz has established the Bulldogs as a blueblood in the sport, capturing four NCAA Team Championships while appearing in the NCAA finals 11 times and winning two Intercollegiate Tennis Association Team National Indoor Championships.

Georgia has reached the NCAA Tournament in all 35 seasons under his leadership, advancing to the quarterfinals in 27 of those trips to the postseason. His players have captured eight individual NCAA Championships — three in doubles and five in singles. Most recently, Ethan Quinn won the NCAA singles title in 2023. Diaz has led the program to 10 SEC Tournament titles and 19 regular season crowns. Every four-year letterman has won at least one SEC Championship ring while playing at Georgia for Coach Diaz.

Hunt Named Next Head Coach

Former Bulldog National Champion Jamie Hunt has been named the next head coach of the Georgia men's tennis program and will begin serving in that role at the conclusion of the 2023-24 season. J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks announced on Tuesday, Feb. 27.

Hunt is currently in his seventh season as the associate head coach on Georgia's staff. Hunt will become the third head coach in the modern history of the program dating back to 1955, replacing the legendary Manuel Diaz, who recently announced his retirement. Hunt played for Coach Diaz from 2007-2010 and helped lead Georgia to a pair of national championships. He returned to his alma mater in 2017 to serve as the program's associate head coach and recruiting coordinator.

Under Hunt's leadership, Georgia has signed a top-10 class in all but one season — the No. 2 class in 2018, No. 3 in 2019 and most recently bringing in the top-ranked class in 2023. During the 2022-23 campaign, Hunt helped lead Georgia to a SEC Championship with a perfect 12-0 mark in league play.
