NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

-The Tigers advanced to the NCAA Championship Final for the first time in school history.
-Mizzou is aiming for its first gymnastics title in school history and first national championship in any women's sport.
-Overall, the Tigers have claimed two team titles in school history and none in the last 60 seasons (baseball in 1954 and men's indoor track in 1965).
-Mizzou is seeking to become the ninth school in gymnastics history to win the team title.
-Each of the other three schools still competing have all won at least six national championships.
-However, Missouri looks to join Michigan in 2021 and LSU in 2024 as two of the last four champions have won the title for the first time in school history.
-Regardless of its placement, by securing a top-four showing, Mizzou gymnastics will earn the best finish of any women's sport in school history.
-Mizzou's previous best finish came in 2022, where the team placed fifth.

TIGERS CONTINUE THE DRAMA IN THE SEMIFINAL

- No. 7 Mizzou advanced in dramatic fashion for the second-straight meet, where the Tigers traded sticks with No. 3 Florida.
- Once again, it came down to the final routine, where Missouri trailed by a quarter tenth when redshirt senior Helen Hu stepped to the balance beam and scored 9.9875, surpassing the Gators by a 197.3000-197.2000 final.
- The Tigers' head-to-head win over Florida in the semifinal meet marked just the second win over the Gators in program history.

HU DID THAT? SHE DID

- After scoring 9.9875 on balance beam to clinch the team's spot in the NCAA Championship Final, Helen Hu won the NCAA Gymnastics Balance Beam National Championship, becoming the first gymnast in program history to win an individual national title.
- Her score of 9.9875 topped runner-up Emma Malabuyo from UCLA, who scored a 9.9750.
- She is the second Mizzou student-athlete to win an individual national championship this season, joining Jonathan Seremes of the men's track and field team in the indoor triple jump.

NO SHORTAGE OF ALL-AMERICANS IN COMO

- MU tallied nine WCGA All-America honors following the NCAA Championship Semifinal.
- Elise Tisler was named a WCGA Vault First Team member, Mara Titarsolej on First Team Uneven Bars and national champion Hu was named to the Balance Beam First Team.
- On the WCGA Second Team, Amari Celestine earned the nod for All-Around, Jocelyn Moore received a spot on Vault, Hannah Horton earned recognition on Uneven Bars, Olivia Kelly did so on Uneven Bars and Balance Beam and Addison Lawrence was honored on Balance Beam.
- Mizzou saw a total of six Regular Season All-America recognitions: Celestine (Floor and All-Around Second Team All-American), Kennedy Griffin (Floor Second Team All-American), Hu (Beam First Team All-American), Moore (Floor Second Team All-American) and Titarsolej (Bars First Team All-American).

THE MATCHUP

- The Tigers take on No. 2 Oklahoma, No. 4 Utah and No. 5 UCLA in the NCAA Championship Final.
- Missouri will compete in Olympic order, beginning on vault followed by bars, beam and floor.
- In their semifinal meets, the squads received the following scores: Mizzou tallied 197.3000, Oklahoma earned 197.5500, Utah scored 197.7625 and UCLA advanced with a mark of 197.7375.
- Oklahoma leads the way in total number of gymnasts in the top 25 of individual events in national qualifying score (NQS) with 20, including five on bars and beam. They are followed by UCLA with 12, and Mizzou and Utah with eight.

FAMILIAR FOES

- This marks the fifth time in 2025 Mizzou and Oklahoma will compete.
- MU averages 197.2188 in the previous four meets, while OU's median in the contests is 197.9250.

THRILLER IN THE REGIONAL FINAL

- In the NCAA Seattle Regional Final, Mizzou and Auburn were neck-and-neck the entirety of the meet for second place with a spot in the semifinal on the line.
- Hu's 9.925 outscored Auburn's Sophia Groth (who scored 9.850 on floor) to send the Tigers to their third NCAA Championship Semifinal in school history.

THE ONE TRUE BEAM QUEEN

- Hu earned her first score of 10 while on balance beam at Oklahoma on Jan. 17, marking the first routine nationally to achieve perfection in the 2025 season.
- She earned another 10 on beam during the team's meet against Arkansas, helping lead the Tigers to their best score in program history (49.575).
- Hu did so for staggering a third time in the final routine of the team's NCAA Championship Second Round meet, becoming the first Mizzou gymnast to score three 10s in a season.
- Hu spent the past year backpacking in Japan, South Korea, Singapore, Malaysia, Vietnam, Thailand, India, Mexico, Guatemala, El Salvador, Nicaragua, Colombia, Ecuador, Italy and Finland with her sister Elaine.

HISTORIC SEASON FOR THE TIGERS

- Missouri gymnastics is in the midst its best season in program history, breaking numerous records throughout 2025.
- The most notable include setting its highest team score (198.100 vs Auburn), beam score (49.575 at Arkansas) and floor score in program history (49.725 at Zou to the Lou), while also ending the year with its best NQS of 197.510.

- The team's two seed in the NCAA Seattle Regional and No. 7 national seed is its best NCAA Championship seeding ever.
- The bars and floor squads slotted in at fourth in NQS nationally to cap off the year, the best of any final event ranking in program history.
- With a 5-0 record in Columbia, Mizzou went undefeated at home for the first time in program history.

TITARSOLEJ DEFINES PERFECTION - AND CONSISTENCY

- Titarsolej captured a third-place finish on uneven bars at the NCAA Championship semifinal with a score of 9.9375.
- She earned the third perfect 10 of her career at the SEC Championship, claiming a share of the SEC Bars title in back-to-back years.
- She is the only gymnast in program history to score a 10 on bars, doing so twice (Zou to the Lou, Feb. 16, 2024, and SEC Championship, March 22, 2025).
- Titarsolej has scored 9.9250 or better on bars in six of the last seven meets.
- The graduate student has scored at least 9.900 on bars in 10 meets this season, the most in a single event by a Mizzou gymnast this season.
- She has anchored the bars lineup in every meet this season.

RECORD SETTING CONFERENCE SLATE

- The Tigers totaled five conference wins, the most single-season victories since becoming a member of the Southeastern Conference, and finished in fourth in the conference standings, their highest regular season finish since joining the SEC.
- Mizzou's 197.400 at the 2025 SEC Championship on March 22 marked its highest score in a conference championship meet.
- Between Griffin and Hu, the two combine for six SEC Specialist of the Week awards, the first time in conference history that one school has earned six such honors in the same season.
- Hu's five are the most by a single gymnast in a season in the award's history.

OWNING THE SOUTH CENTRAL REGION

- Missouri garnered some of the top WCGA South Central Regional Awards following the 2025 campaign.
- Celestine was named the Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association South Central Region Co-Gymnast of the Year along with Oklahoma's Faith Torrez.
- Head coach Shannon Welker was named the WCGA South Central Regional Coach of the Year as well.

SHOWCASING THAT IT JUST MEANS MORE

- Mizzou also won a number of annual conference awards.
- Head coach Shannon Welker was named the 2025 SEC Coach of the Year for the second time in his career (2022) and the WCGA South Central Regional Coach of the Year. This marked the fifth time that a Mizzou gymnastics head coach has earned a conference Coach of the Year accolade.
- In addition, Welker's award is the ninth time a Missouri coach received SEC Coach of the Year and just the third coach to earn it twice in their career.
- Hu won the SEC Specialist of the Year award, marking the third time in the last four years the recognition was given to a Mizzou gymnast.
- Four Tigers earned All-SEC honors: Celestine, Hu, Moore and Titarsolej. This is now the third-straight season that Mizzou's had at least four gymnasts receive a spot on the All-SEC team.
- Hu and Titarsolej won the SEC Beam Championship and SEC Bars Championship, respectively.

CHASING PERFECTION

- Three Missouri gymnasts totaled five 10s in 2025 (Griffin, Hu three times and Titarsolej), the most in school history.
- This ranks as the third-most of any team in the 2025 regular season.

THE CELESTANDARD

- In her final season of competition, Celestine has continued to impress in each meet of the year.
- She set a new personal-best all-around score of 39.650 against Auburn on March 9, which is the sixth-best score in program history.
- She was named the NCAA Seattle Regional Vault Champion after scoring 9.950 for her routine at the NCAA Championship Second Round.
- In the all-around, Celestine's NQS of 39.515 ranks 15th. She holds the 17th-highest score nationally at 39.650.
- With her result against Georgia on bars, Celestine became the only Tiger since 1999 to record five-straight scores of at least 9.900 in the event. The streak went through six-straight meets after a 9.900 at Florida. Only two gymnasts have done so four times in a row - Titarsolej in 2024 and Jodie

GRIFFIN ETCHES NAME IN RECORD BOOKS

- Griffin's performance at Zou to the Lou is the second 10.000 on floor a Mizzou gymnast has received, joining teammate Moore, who achieved the feat at the Illinois Quad on March 17, 2024.
- Her NQS of 9.920 ranks 14th nationally in the event.
- The sophomore earned SEC Specialist of the Week honors on Feb. 18, marking her second weekly conference award.
- She also won Freshman of the Week on Jan. 30, 2024, following her previous career-best of 9.975 in the team's win over No. 3 LSU.

WANT SOME MO'[ORE]

- Moore, a senior, has had a fantastic 2025 campaign, highlighted by scoring 9.975 on vault at Oklahoma, holding the highest score in the nation through week five. This marked the fourth time in her career to score or exceed a 9.975.
- She has recorded a 9.950 on floor five times this season. Her most notable came against Auburn on senior day, where she clinched the team's first-ever 198.000+.
- Moore has earned a 9.900 or better in an event in 11 of the team's 15 meets this season.
- Across her 55 collegiate meets throughout her career, Moore has scored 9.900 in one of the three events she competes in all but eight meets. She has scored 9.900 an impressive 22 times on vault and 38 times on floor.

THE BEST OF THE BEST

- Road to Nationals switched over to NQS to determine its rankings following the seventh week of meets.
- NQS is calculated by taking a team or individual's top six scores, three of which come from away meets, dropping the highest score and averaging the remaining five.
- Missouri claims a top 11 spot in all four events - fourth in the nation on bars and floor and, 11th on vault and beam.
- The Tigers' highest-ranked individual is Hu, who is second nationally on beam. Her No. 2 ranking ties the second-highest in program history, which is only surpassed by Lauren Schwartzman, who was ranked No. 1 on beam in 2006.
- In total, Mizzou is represented in the NQS top 25 of an event eight times - Horton (18) on vault, Celestine (24) and Titarsolej (4) on bars, Hu (2) on beam, Celestine (11), Griffin (14) and Moore (10) on floor and Celestine (15) in the all-around.

100 CAREER WINS

- Welker captured his 100th career win in the team's victory over Arkansas on March 14, 2025.
- In his tenure, the Black & Gold have competed in 10 NCAA Regional, five NCAA Regional Final, two NCAA Championship Semifinal meets and now in the NCAA Championship Final.
- Director of Athletics Laird Veatch announced on Thursday, Jan. 2 that Welker signed a contract extension to remain at the helm of the program through 2029.

STEPPING IN AND STEPPING UP

- Heading into the NCAA Championship Second Round meet, freshman Kaia Tanskanen had competed on the floor exercise just once this season - on Feb. 21 against Georgia.
- The fourth-ranked Fab Floor needed a lineup change after back tightness forced Elise Tisler to stick to just vault for the past three meets, where Tanskanen slid in.
- The Howell, Michigan, native scored 9.875 on the apparatus in the Second Round and Regional Final, helping the squad score 49.550 in the latter.
- Across her four appearances on floor, Tanskanen has earned scores of 9.900, 9.875, 9.875 and 9.8250.

HIGH-IMPACT FRESHMEN

- In addition to Tanskanen, Railey Jackson and Olivia Kelly have made ample contributions to the team's successes in 2025.
- Jackson has been a consistent contributor on balance beam, scoring 9.850 or higher in her last four routines. She holds an NQS of 9.845 on the event.
- Kelly has impressed on bars and beam, scoring 9.900 or highest twice and four times, respectively.
- Three of her four 9.900s on beam have come in three of the last five meets.
- Kelly's NQS of 9.880 on beam ranks 57th nationally.
- In the NCAA Championship Semifinal, Jackson scored 9.8500 on beam while Kelly earned marks of 9.8875 on bars and beam.

SHANNON WELKER

HEAD COACH • 12TH SEASON AT MIZZOU
CAREER: 111-85-1 • AT MIZZOU: 111-85-1

WELKER COACHING CAREER
- Illinois-Chicago, 1997-98 (Assistant Coach)
- St. Louis Gymnastics Center, 1998-07 (Head Coach)
- Bowling Green, 2007-08 (Assistant Coach)
- Michigan, 2008-13 (Assistant Coach)
- Mizzou 2014-present (Head Coach)

In his 12th season at the helm of the Mizzou gymnastics program, head coach Shannon Welker continues to make the Tigers a rising power nationally.

2024
In Welker's 11th season, Missouri reached new heights, finishing with a 13-6 record and a program-record 197.420 NQS that ranked No. 13 in the country. The Tigers posted a score of 197 or higher in 12 of their 14 meets, the most in team history.

In postseason competition, the Tigers finished fifth at the SEC Championship meet, posting a school-record 197.275 to win the afternoon session. Missouri reached the NCAA Regional Final for a fourth consecutive season and finished the country ranked 11th in the nation, the team's second-best year-end ranking in program history.

Welker's squad started off its season with a bang, peaking at No. 3 in the first rankings of the year for the team's highest ranking ever. Three weeks later, the Tigers earned their biggest upset in program history, knocking off the eventual NCAA champion No. 3 LSU on Jan. 26 inside Hearnes Center.
As a team, Missouri set program records on three different events. The Tigers posted a 49.600 on bars at the Mizzou Quad on March 10, then scored a 49.500 on vault and a 49.700 on floor at the Illinois Quad on March 17 to end the regular season strong.

The Tigers racked up several accolades over the course of the season. Three Missouri gymnasts — Jocelyn Moore, Sienna Schreiber and Mara Titarsolej — each earned WCGA Regular Season All-America honors, marking the most gymnasts to earn the honor in a single season for the Tigers.

At the conference level, Missouri's awards were headlined by Jocelyn Moore winning 2024 SEC Event Specialist of the Year and Mara Titarsolej claiming a share of the SEC bars title to become Missouri's first bars conference champion. Additionally, Missouri earned a conference-best and program-record seven All-SEC selections at the SEC Championship.

Another record-breaking season for the Tigers led by Welker, ending with the highest regional score in program history with 197.600 and a 3rd place finish at the NCAA Regional Final. Mizzou's score of 49.450 also earned them the highest vault score in regional competition. The Tigers set a new program-high championships score, beating both Arkansas and Georgia at the SEC Championships, along with a 2nd place finish at the NCAA Regional Second Round. Under Welker's coaching, the Tigers secured the 14th rank nationally and a 10-3 record, including wins over five nationally-ranked opponents.

Five gymnasts earned All-SEC Honors for the second year in a row: Amari Celestine, Helen Hu, Jocelyn Moore, Alisa Sheremeta and Sienna Schreiber. Moore and Hu were also named Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association (WCGA) Regular Season All-Americans for the season. Claiming first-team honors on vault, Moore posted this accolade for the second consecutive time and Hu claimed second-team honors on beam.

In a remarkable 2022 season, Welker led the Tigers to a 5th place finish in NCAA National Championships in April — the best finish in program history. The Tigers ranked 11th nationally, defeating LSU and Iowa in the NCAA Regional Second Round. Missouri grabbed hold of a top-two finish, topping UCLA and Iowa State, at the Raleigh Regional to secure a spot at the NCAA Championships for only the second time ever. Under Welker's leadership, the Tigers also won on the road against Georgia for the first time.

Two gymnasts received Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association (WGCA) Regular Season All-America honors — Jocelyn Moore and Sienna Schreiber. Moore claimed first team honors on vault, while Schreiber took second team honors on the beam and all-around. Welker received SEC Coach of the Year for his performance.

Mizzou concluded the 2021 campaign ranked 14th nationally for the second year in a row, the first time since the 2009 and 2010 seasons the Tigers posted back-to-back top 14 finishes. Competing in a Southeastern Conference-only regular season, Welker led Missouri to wins over No. 15 Georgia and No. 19 Auburn, while also finishing ahead of No. 9 Arkansas at the 2021 SEC Championship.

In the NCAA Tuscaloosa second round, the Tigers erupted with a 197.325, the third-highest score in program history, to advance to the NCAA Regional Final. It marked the first time Mizzou competed in a regional final in the revamped postseason format.

Individually, the Tigers had a WCGA Regular Season All-American for the second year in a row, as sophomore Sienna Schreiber nabbed second team accolades on beam. Schreiber and freshman Amaya Marshall also claimed All-SEC honors, with Schreiber earning a spot on the All-SEC Team and Marshall on the SEC All-Freshman Team.

In 2020, Welker's Tigers vaulted up the rankings as the season progressed, reaching 14th in late March when the season was abruptly cut short prior to the regular season finale. Over the course of the season, Mizzou defeated No. 11 Minnesota and No. 19 Nebraska and twice posted team scores among the top 10 in program history. Additionally, Welker's vault squad notched two scores that ranked in the program's top 10 on the event.

The Tigers' National Qualifying Score (NQS) of 196.635 at the time the season ended was the third-best such score in program history and the team's highest since 2004. Freshman Helen Hu emerged as one of the nation's top gymnasts, claiming NACGC/W All-America first team (beam) and second team (bars) honors, as well as SEC Event Specialist of the Year accolades.

The 2019 Tigers finished 17th in the national rankings, which tied the team's best finish since 2010. At the 2019 NCAA Athens Regional, Missouri tallied both the highest regional score (196.625) and the top regional beam total (49.200) in program history. Senior Brooke Kelly Senior Brooke Kelly became the 10th Tiger to earn an individual berth to the NCAA Championships after she qualified on beam.

Mizzou knocked off four top 25 teams during the 2019 season, including a win over No. 10 Kentucky and a tie with No. 7 Michigan.

The Tigers also recorded the second-highest beam score in program history (49.425), the sixth (49.425) and seventh (49.400) best floor scores and the ninth-best vault total (49.275) over the course of the campaign.

2018
Welker's fifth season at Mizzou saw the Tigers knock off three top 10 teams during the regular season. On March 2, Missouri defeated No. 5 Florida, 196-925-196.925, for the first victory over the Gators in program history. Mizzou also defeated Arkansas twice this year while the Razorbacks were ranked in the top 10.

Overall, the Tigers went 9-7 in the regular season, including conference wins over No. 5 Florida and No. 10 Arkansas. The squad also concluded the year ranked 20th in the nation, the third-straight season Mizzou ended the year in the top 20.

2017
In his fourth year with Missouri, Welker's Tigers finished 17th in the national rankings and a third-place finish at the NCAA Gainesville Regional, only one spot shy of qualifying for the NCAA Championships. The 2017 season also saw Mizzou go 3-4 in Southeastern Conference dual meet action, with wins over No. 12 Arkansas, No. 12 Kentucky and No. 18 Auburn.

The Tigers entered the season with just one SEC dual win in program history. Additionally, Missouri recorded the third and fourth-highest scores in program history in 2017, with a 197.200 against Auburn and a 197.150 one week later against Kentucky.

2016
During the 2016 season, Welker led Mizzou to its highest NCAA Regional (third) finish since 2010. Overall, the Tigers finished the year ranked 19th in the national rankings, the team's highest since 2010, and ahead of Southeastern Conference foes Arkansas and Kentucky. Missouri recorded three scores of at least 196.625 or higher during the year in 2016, only the second time Mizzou accomplished that in the 37 year history of the program.

Additionally, the Tigers defeated No. 9 Georgia 195.800-195.350 for the team's first top-10 win since 2012. Under Welker's tutelage, freshman Morgan Porter earned SEC Freshman of the Year honors and was the first Tiger gymnast to qualify for the NCAA Championships since 2012.

Under Welker's direction, the Tigers were the nation's most improved program in 2015. Mizzou finished the season ranked 21st, a full 20-spot increase from the previous year and the biggest jump in the country.

The 2015 Tigers also qualified for their first NCAA Regional since 2012, where they scored a 196.100, the second-best Regional score in program history. Additionally, Mizzou entered the top-25 for the first time since 2012 and scored at least 195 10 times in 13 meets. The Tigers also topped 196 twice during the season for the first time since 2012 as well.

2014
In his first year in Columbia in 2014, Welker quickly installed his Championship Culture to the squad. Over the season, the Tigers went 6-7 in the regular season and scored the sixth-best bars score (49.300) in program history against George Washington.

Welker brought a wealth of experience to Columbia after five years as an assistant coach at the University of Michigan and nine years as the head coach and program director at the St. Louis Gymnastic Center.

PRIOR TO MIZZOU
During his time at Michigan, Welker was primarily responsible for coaching the vault and floor squads in addition to serving as the recruiting coordinator. Welker guided his vault squads to three top ten finishes during his time at Michigan, and his 2012 vault team finished at No. 11 in the nation. Under his direction, the Michigan floor squads also finished among the nation's top-10 four times, while the team earned top-15 finishes in each of his seasons in Ann Arbor.

Welker coached five gymnasts to 12 All-American honors while at Michigan including the 2013 NCAA National Floor Champion, Joanna Sampson. He also produced three NCAA Regional Championship floor title winners and back-to-back NCAA Regional Champions on vault. Four of his gymnasts won event titles at the Big Ten Championships, and Welker assisted the Wolverines to three NCAA National Championships as well.

Before coaching at Michigan, Welker spent one year as an assistant coach at Bowling Green, where he coached two gymnasts to the NCAA Regional Championships for the first time in program history. Before working with the Falcons, Welker served as the head women's gymnastics coach and program director at the St. Louis Gymnastic Center for nine years.

ABOUT WELKER
A four-year competitor on the University of Illinois at Chicago men's gymnastics team, Welker served as a team captain for three years and earned NCAA All-American honors in 1996. He was also awarded UIC Athlete of the Year honors that season. Welker spent a year as an assistant men's gymnastics coach for UIC, and was also inducted into the University of Illinois at Chicago Athletics Hall of Fame in 2005.

Welker earned his undergraduate degree in kinesiology from the University of Illinois at Chicago in 1998, and also received his master's degree in sports management from Eastern Michigan University in 2012. Welker and his wife, Molly, have two sons, Ian and Brendan.
