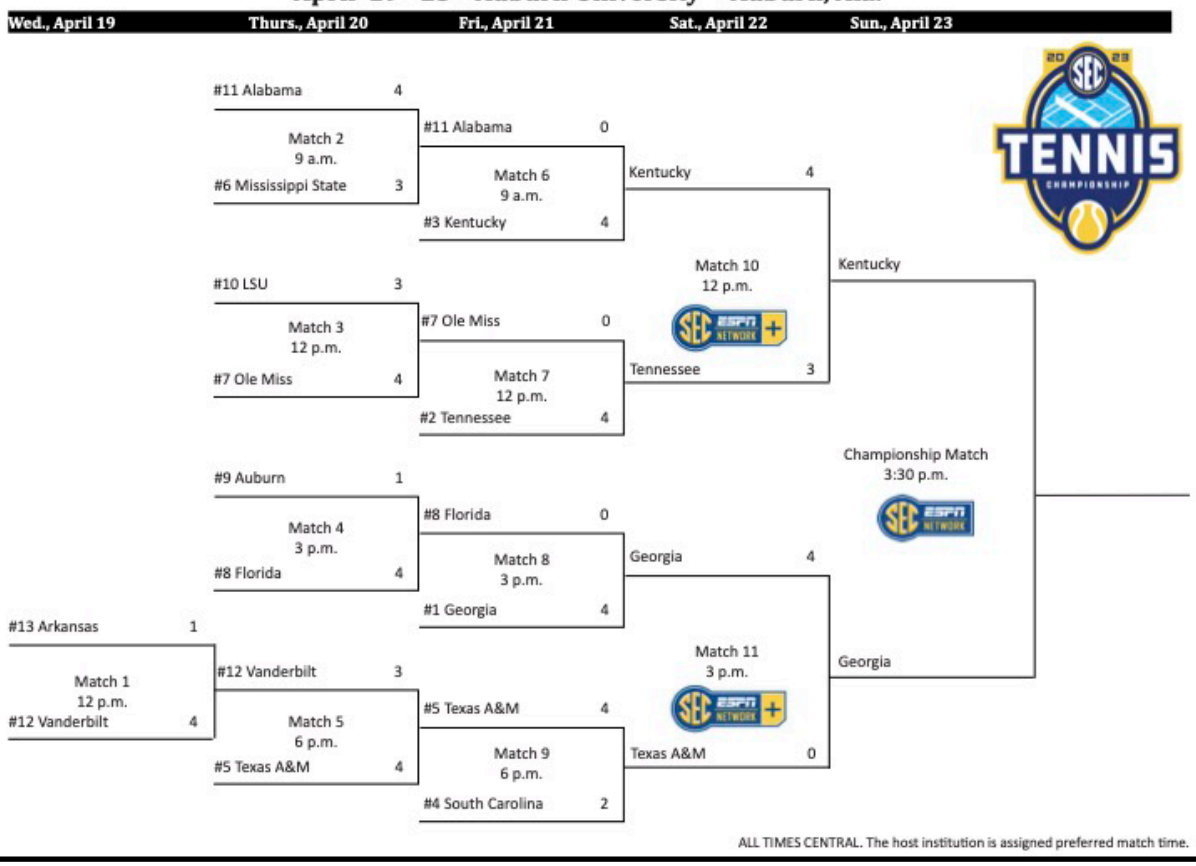
SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE TOURNAMENT BRACKET

2023 SEC Men's Tennis Tournament
April 19 - 23 • Auburn University • Auburn, Ala.



GEORGIA'S MATCHES

The University of Georiga men's tennis team played its first match on Friday, April 21 at 4 p.m. ET against the No. 8-seed Florida, where they won by a 4-0 sweep.

The Bulldogs then advanced to the semifinals on Saturday, playing at 4 p.m. ET against No. 5-Seed Texas A&M, where they also won by a 4-0 decision. Redshirt freshman Ethan Quinn earned both of the match-clinching wins for Georgia. The match was live streamed on the SEC Network+.

The championship match between top-seeded Georgia and No. 3 Kentucky will be played on Sunday, April 23 at 4:30 p.m. ET and will be televised on the SEC Network. Georgia is seeking its 11th overall SEC Tournament title and making its first appearance in the finals since 2017, when it last won the championship.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

For the 32nd time in program history, the Georgia Bulldogs are the Southeastern Conference regular season champions. The team won the outright title by going a perfect 12-0 in SEC play.

Redshirt senior Blake Croyder earned the match-clinching win for the Bulldogs at No. 20 Florida on Sunday, April 9. Georgia has now won 11 consecutive matches and earned their first regular season conference title since 2017.

"For these guys, winning the conference championship means a heck of a lot and I am so proud of them," said Coach Diaz. "This past fall, when we had former players back at the alumni event, I introduced our team to the lettermen there. I asked everyone to raise their hand if they had won a championship ring during their time as a Bulldog, and every single player that was there raised their hand. Since 1971 and onward, everyone who played here for four years can say they won this conference. So, for our fifth-year seniors, it's been a huge goal for them, and this means a ton."

POSTSEASON PLAY BEGINS

Georgia will start its postseason with the SEC Tournament, seeking its 11th conference title and 43rd overall conference championship. The program's 10 titles are the most in the SEC since the tournament began in 1990, accounting for 31 percent of all tournament winners.

The Bulldogs last won the conference tournament in 2017, when it was hosted in Knoxville, Tenn. The team earned a bye into the quarterfinals after earning the regular season crown, going 11-1 during the SEC schedule. Georgia defeated Arkansas in the quarterfinals, 4-1, Florida in the semifinals, 4-3, and Mississippi State, 4-3 en route to its 10th tournament title.

32-TIME SEC CHAMPIONS

With the Bulldogs' win against No. 12 Mississippi State at home on April 13, Georgia clinched the outright regular season SEC Championship for the 32nd time in program history, which leads the SEC. Georgia earned a perfect 12-0 record in conference play for the 16th time and sixth in the Manny Diaz era. With an 18-5 record, the team finished the regular season with a .783 win percentage, the best since the 2015-16 squad entered the postseason at 18-3, good for a .857 percentage.

CLUTCH CLINCHING

In Georgia's 12 regular season conference matches, six different players have earned the match-clinching win in singles: Bryde against Alabama and LSU, Quinn against Auburn, Kentucky and Mississippi State, Thomas Paulsell did so against Vanderbilt in his first dual match result of the season, Henning capped off the team's wins over Tennessee and Ole Miss Perez Peña confirmed the team's sweeps of Arkansas and South Carolina, and most Croyder earned his second clinch against Florida in a three-set battle to propel the team to its 32nd Southeastern Conference Championship.

DAWGS IN THE RANKINGS

In the latest team rankings from the Intercollegiate Tennis Association, Georgia held the No. 4 spot for the second consecutive week.

Redshirt freshman Ethan Quinn stayed at No. 4 in the singles ranking and has won 11 of his previous 12 matches including six consecutive wins. Four of those nine wins have come from players ranked within the top 55. With Philip Henning now at No. 15, Georgia becomes the only SEC school to have multiple players in the top 15 of the singles rankings.

Blake Croyder, the team's leader in dual match singles wins with 16, moved up to No. 101 after reaching his 100th career win after defeating No. 95 Ewen Lumsden by a 6-2, 6-1 score on April 13. Trent Bryde makes his first appearance in the singles poll since Feb. 21, now being ranked No. 119. The Sewanee native is 10-5 on court three this season and 7-1 in his last eight match results.

Bryde and Quinn make up the top spot for Georgia in doubles and rose to the No. 7 pair in the country in the latest doubles poll. The tandem has won 12 matches this season on court one, including four point-clinching victories. Quinn is the only freshman in the nation to be ranked in the top 10 of both the singles and doubles poll.

STRAIGHT-SET WINS

Georgia has straight-set victories in 67 of the team's 90 dual-match singles wins, good for a clip of 74.4 percent of the team's singles wins. Croyder leads the team, with 14 of his 17 wins coming in straight-set decisions. Of those 90 straight-set wins, 45 of them came in matches that were 6-4, 6-4 or better. Perez Peña leads the team in this statistic with with 11, Croyder has 10, Quinn has eight, Henning has seven, Giusca has five, Bryde has three and Paulsell has one.

LOVE, THE DAWGS

The Bulldogs have been winning at a high rate in singles competition since Valentine's Day. In the team's last 13 matches, each player has a winning percentage above .500 in singles. Henning is currently riding a staggering 10-match win streak, all of which have come against conference opponents. Four Georgia athletes curretly hold at least a five-match win streak in singles: Henning (10), Quinn (8), Croyder (7) and Perez Peña (5).

SOPHOMORE SURGE

With a singles record of 27-10, sophomore Miguel Perez Peña has increased his win total by 15 from last season, the highest on the team of any returning player. The Castellon de la Plana, Spain native currently leads the team in wins, going 10-5 in the fall and now 17-5 in the dual match season. Perez Peña has won 14 of his last 16 matches dating back to the team's win against Georgia Tech on Feb. 12 and holds six wins on court five. He clinched the sweep against No. 5 South Carolina on April 7 with a straight set win against No. 88 Casey Hoole, 6-3, 6-2.

On the SEC Tournament...

""It's an opportunity for us to continue to get better as a team. We've had an outstanding regular season in the conference and had a big turnaround for this program. Our guys are playing with confidence. To complete our regular season undefeated is a major feat, but we have to leave all that behind and take on a new challenge. Our conference being as great as it is right now, it's going to be a challenge each and every step of the way. I'm looking forward to having this team ready, and our guys are in a good frame of mind.
