MATCH NOTES

SERIES BREAKDOWN

Mizzou soccer returns to the newly renovated Audrey J. Walton Stadium as it takes on in-state foe Saint Louis for its 2026 home opener on Thursday, August 20, at 4:30 p.m. The series dates back to the inaugural season of Mizzou soccer. The programs met in each of the Tigers' first three seasons, then didn't face off again until 2024, and have met in each of the three years since.

PRE-MATCH PRESS

- Saint Louis went 14-4-2 in 2025 with a No. 34 final RPI under 14th-year head coach Katie Shields. The Billikens opened 2026 with a 2-1 home loss to Alabama.
- The Tigers picked up their first win of the 2026 campaign against Murray State, topping the Racers, 3-1, to close out their Bluegrass State road trip on Sunday, August 16.
- Senior Brianna Buels needed only seconds to strike and open the match against Murray State, scoring in a program-record 14 seconds. She finished with two goals, the second coming in the 67th minute.
- Emily Derucki was credited with the first game-winning goal of her career, putting Mizzou up 2-1 in the 50th minute, her third time finding the back of the net in her collegiate career.
- Sunday marked the second meeting between the MU and MSU, with Mizzou taking the lone prior matchup in 2019, 1-0.
- Missouri returns the bulk of its roster from a season ago, including Phillips and center backs Mia Yang and Morgan Meador, who anchored the shutout in the opener.
- Meador has started a team-high 29 straight matches, while senior goalkeepers Kate Phillips and Riley Wilkerson have split the first two starts: Phillips a shutout draw at WKU, with Wilkerson earning the win at Murray State.
- The match is set for 4:30 p.m. at Walton Stadium and will stream on SEC Network+, with live stats and in-match updates available at MUTigers.com and on X at @MizzouSoccer.

TAKING THE PITCH

- Missouri enters its 31st season of competition in 2026.
- The Tigers return the majority of a roster that gained significant experience a season ago, including their top returning scorer, both starting center backs and both goalkeepers from 2025.
- Mizzou opened the year with two matches in Kentucky, playing Western Kentucky to a scoreless draw and winning at Murray State, 3-1, before its home opener against in-state foe Saint Louis on Thursday, Aug. 20 at 4:30 p.m. at Audrey J. Walton Stadium.

FACILITY FACELIFT

- The Tigers will return to an upgraded Audrey J. Walton Stadium for their home opener, part of a project funded by a landmark philanthropic gift from Audrey J. Walton announced in January 2025.
- The gift, one of the largest in Mizzou Athletics history and the largest ever dedicated to Olympic sports, funded a new natural grass playing surface and subsurface improvements.

HOME COOKING

- Thursday is Missouri's 2026 home opener and the program's first appearance at Audrey J. Walton Stadium this season.
- The Tigers return to Columbia unbeaten at 1-0-1 after opening the year with a two-match road swing through Kentucky.
- It marks the first time since 2020 that Mizzou has opened a season away from home, and the third time in the past four years that the Tigers have started a year unbeaten through two matches.
- Missouri arrives on a high note, having outshot both of its first two opponents while allowing just one goal across 180 minutes.
- The Tigers are 24-4-2 all-time in home openers and enter unbeaten in their last four.

SCOUTING THE OPPONENT

- Saint Louis enters 1-1 in 2026, rebounding from a season-opening 2-1 home loss to Alabama with a 5-0 victory over Lindenwood on Aug. 16.
- The Billikens are coming off a standout 2025 under 14th-year head coach Katie Shields, going 14-4-2 with an 8-1-1 Atlantic 10 mark, good for second in the league, and a No. 34 finish in the final NCAA RPI.
- Saint Louis flashed its firepower against Lindenwood, scoring four times in the opening 16 minutes, with Audrey Smith netting a pair.
- The trip to Columbia is the Billikens' first road match of 2026, following two home dates to open the season.
- Saint Louis' non-conference slate features five Power Four opponents, including home meetings with Alabama and Kansas.

LAST TIME OUT

- Missouri closed its season-opening road trip with a 3-1 win at Murray State on Sunday, Aug. 16, at Cutchin Field.
- Buels scored the fastest goal in program history, converting a Landis Canada feed just 14 seconds in for a 1-0 lead.
- Murray State answered in the 40th minute to even the match at 1-1 at the break.
- Derucki restored the lead for good in the 50th minute, burying an unassisted strike for the game-winner.
- Buels added an insurance goal in the 67th minute off an Allyssa Turner assist, capping a two-goal, five-shot afternoon.
- The Tigers carried the run of play, outshooting the Racers 18-11 and 9-3 in shots on goal.
- Wilkerson earned the win in her first start of the season with two saves.

THE CORE IS BACK

- Missouri returns the bulk of its 2025 roster, a young group that logged heavy minutes a season ago and comes back a year older.
- Buels, Canada and Yang were named to the 2026 SEC Soccer Preseason Watchlist, with all three earning their second straight watchlist nod after first being honored a season ago.
- The back line returns Yang and Meador, who started together throughout 2025.
- The midfield brings back Olivia Chianelli, McKenna Moran, Ava Vetter, Aly Bryant and Monica Brauner, while the attack returns Buels, Derucki, Mia Devrouax, Canada and Landry Hopkins.
- Phillips and Wilkerson both return in goal.
- The Tigers return at least 10 starters from a season ago, marking just the fourth time in program history Missouri has brought back double-digit starters, with all three previous teams reaching the NCAA Tournament.

TURNING THE PAGE

- Missouri opens a new season looking to build on the flashes it showed in 2025, when the Tigers pushed several ranked opponents and closed the year with back-to-back shutouts.
- Mizzou's signature result came in its SEC opener: a 3-1 win over Texas, the program's first multi-goal SEC-opening victory since 2017.
- The Tigers return that experience and a defensive foundation that kept them in matches all fall.
- The continuity has shown early. Through two matches, Missouri holds a 29-19 edge in total shots and a 15-6 advantage in shots on goal while allowing just one goal.

STINGY IN THE BACKFIELD

- Defense was Missouri's calling card in 2025: the Tigers dropped just two matches by three or more goals all season.
- The Tigers have allowed just one goal in 2026, blanking Western Kentucky in the opener while limiting the Hilltoppers to three shots on target before conceding once at Murray State.

ALSO RECEIVING VOTES: SAMFORD (14), WISCONSIN (4), IOWA (2), SANTA CLARA (1), SMU (1)

ITALICS DENOTES 2026 OPPONENT

- Mizzou closed the year with a 0-0 draw against SEC-leading Arkansas in its home finale.
- Center backs Yang and Meador, who played all but three minutes together in 2025, return to anchor the back line.

SIDELINE STAFF

- Missouri added Callie McKinney to Stefanie Golan's staff as an assistant coach in May, arriving after a season at SMU and five at Bellarmine, where she served as head coach in 2024.
- At SMU, she helped the Mustangs to an 8-8-2 record against one of the nation's toughest schedules.
- At Bellarmine, McKinney guided the Knights to Division I-era program records for wins and ASUN victories in her lone season at the helm.
- A Franklin, Tenn., native, McKinney played at Louisville (2016-19), reaching the NCAA Tournament in each of her final two seasons.
- Missouri is one of just three Power Four programs, along with Georgia and Maryland, that list nine or more women on their staff pages.

STRENGTH IN GOAL

- Missouri returns an experienced, proven tandem in goal, with seniors Phillips and Wilkerson both back to compete for time between the posts after seeing starts in 2025.
- Phillips, a Fishers, Indiana, native, ranked among the top five in the SEC in total saves a season ago, starting all but the final two matches and holding opponents to one goal or fewer on numerous occasions.
- Wilkerson closed 2025 in form, making 13 saves across the Tigers' final two matches, both of which were shutout draws, coming against Arkansas and Auburn.

SHOW-ME STATE

- Missouri's 2026 roster features 10 in-state players, continuing one of the most home-grown stretches in program history.
- It marks just the second time the program has carried 10 or more Missourians in three or more consecutive seasons (2024–26), with the only other run coming across Mizzou's first five seasons (1996–2000).
- The Tigers set a program record with 15 Missouri natives on the 2025 roster.

DESIGNING HER FUTURE

- Brauner is a Textile and Apparel Management major who previously studied architecture and holds a minor in the field.
- She's designed and created her own clothing as part of her coursework.
- The senior draws inspiration from fashion's ability to communicate identity and values through dress.
- She aspires to work in the fashion industry on sewing, pattern making and garment development, with a long-term dream of launching her own sustainable, timeless brand.

SERVING BEYOND SOCCER

- Morgan Schaefer is an active leader in Mizzou's Med-Letes group, alongside teammate Yang.
- She helped to relaunch Caleb's Pitch, a program that partners Mizzou Athletics with Children's Hospital patients to create syringe art in honor of Caleb, who passed away from cancer at a young age.
- She also finds time to volunteer weekly at The Crossing Church, serving as a preschool team leader when not competing.
- She continues to give back to the community with Caring Hearts and Hands of Columbia, supporting hospice patients alongside teammate Mia Yang.

HORSEPOWER AT HOME

- Hopkins comes from a family with a passion for horse racing, with her family owning Proverbs Stable.
- The family's horse, Diva Las Vegas, won her maiden race at Fairmount Park on Sept. 6, 2025, pulling away to win by 2 ½ lengths.
- Racing has become a family affair, with Hopkins and her sisters often visiting Diva at the track.
- The Hopkins family recently purchased a second thoroughbred, Serene Empress, at the Keeneland Yearling Sale in Lexington, Ky.

POISE UNDER PRESSURE

- Phillips earned Mizzou's starting goalkeeper role last season after splitting time in 2024. She suffered an ankle injury during her freshman season.
- She is known for her poise under pressure, serving as a vocal leader who commands the back line and consistently celebrates her teammates' big plays.
- Before every match, her mom reminds her to "be brave," a message Phillips has carried with her throughout her career.
- She comes from a family of athletes, with three brothers who played college baseball and a great-grandfather who lettered in football and baseball at Iowa during the famed 1939 "Ironmen" season.

HEAD COACH

STEFANIE GOLAN

FIFTH YEAR • DUKE '01

PERSONAL INFORMATION
Born: July 9, 1968
Hometown: St. Charles, Mo.
Children: Travis, Max
Education: Duke, 2001 // Northeastern, 2012

LEADING THE WAY

Stefanie Golan, a St. Charles, Missouri native, was named the University of Missouri's second women's soccer head coach in May 2021.

The 2026 season will be Golan's 18th as a head coach and fifth at Missouri. In 17 seasons, she has totaled a 147-119-43 (.545) career record.

During the 2024 season, Golan guided Milena Fischer to an All-SEC Third Team appearance after the senior tallied six goals and an assist.

In 2023, Golan directed Kylee Simmons to First Team All-SEC honors after the forward led the SEC in points (24), points per game (1.41), goals (11) and goals per game (.65). Simmons scored 11 goals on 29 shots on goal, finishing 18th in the country in shot accuracy (.630).

In addition, Simmons, Jenna Bartels, Milena Fischer and Leah Selm were named to the College Sports Communicators Academic All-District Team for their combined performance on the field and in the classroom.

During the 2022 campaign, Golan's Tigers garnered two all-conference selections as defender Grace Pettit was named to the All-SEC Second Team while Bella Hollenbach landed on the All-SEC Freshman Team.

In her first season at the helm, Golan led the Tigers to an upset of No. 13 Ole Miss while Fischer claimed All-SEC Freshman Team recognition.

BEFORE THE ROAR

Golan came to Mizzou after spending nine seasons building a championship program at the University of Minnesota.

In nine seasons as head coach at Minnesota (2012-2020), Golan fashioned a 92-64-24 (.578) record with four NCAA Tournament appearances, one Big Ten regular-season title, a pair of Big Ten Tournament championships and eight winning seasons.

Leading the Gophers to the 2018 Big Ten Tournament Title, Golan's squad ran through the tournament without allowing a single goal after entering as the seventh seed. With qualification secured for the NCAA Tournament, Minnesota upset Auburn 2-0 in the first round before falling to the UCLA Bruins in the second round of play.

Golan earned her 100th career win against Utah State on Sept. 8, 2017. The milestone came in the form of a 5-0 defeat of the Aggies in her nine seasons as a head coach.

Named Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2016, Golan led Minnesota to a 16-3-4 record and the program's first sweep of the Big Ten regular-season and tournament titles. The Gophers finished the 2016 campaign ranked in the Top 15 nationally after earning the highest national ranking in program history at No. 8. That squad also boasted the Big Ten Forward of the Year in Simone Kolander and the Big Ten Defender of the Year in Rashida Beal, who earned All-America honors and later drafted by FC Kansas City.

Golan guided the 2015 Gophers to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2010 and a 12-7-3 record. The program was ranked as high as No. 11 during the season, and Kolander earned the first of two Big Ten Forward of the Year honors.

Before moving to the Twin Cities to guide the Minnesota program, Golan sept five and a half years at Army West Point, serving as the associate head coach in 2007 and 2008. In three years as the head coach, 2009-11, she led the team to a 33-18-10 record and the program's second-ever NCAA Tournament appearance in 2011.

After debuting as the Black Knights' head coach in 2009, Golan's 2010 squad registered the program's highest win total since 1996 with its 14-4-3 record. It allowed just six goals on the season en route to a share of the Patriot League's regular-season championship. In her final season at West Point, Army went 12-4-5 and won the 2011 Patriot League Tournament title with a thrilling 2-0 win over arch-rival Navy to earn the second-ever NCAA Tournament appearance in program history.

Prior to joining the Army West Point staff, Golan served as an assistant coach at the University of Pittsburgh and the University of Evansville after launching her career as a graduate assistant at Mercer University. The St. Charles native is an active member of the NSCAA and a former Chair of the NSCAA Great Lakes Region for the organization's All-America Committee.

GOLAN PLAYING DAYS

Golan earned a soccer scholarship to Duke University (Stefanie Kraay), where she played 56 games from 1997-2001 and helped lead the team to four NCAA Tournament appearances. The former Blue Devil earned a Bachelor of Arts in political science in 2001 before adding a master's in sports leadership from Northeastern University in 2012.

PERSONAL

Golan has two sons, Travis and Max, and a pair of dogs, Sarge and Captain.
